Dear Class of 2020,

Congratulations on your graduation. We are so proud of you. CIU faculty and staff have invested in you and we are so thankful for our time with you! We now ask you to remember that God will use you as you daily surrender to Him. Be bold, stand for righteousness and truth and share the love of Jesus everywhere you go!

As I remembered you, I thought of Jeremiah 33:14 which says "Behold the days are coming, says the Lord, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised . . ."

As you leave the campus I pray that God performs a good thing through you! I pray for the Holy Spirit to empower your efforts.

I pray you will be faithful to the ministry, and I pray you will remember Columbia International University as we educate future students.

Blessings & Congratulations,
Dr. Mark A. Smith
Seventh President of Columbia International
University

"He is the one we proclaim, admonishing and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone fully mature in Christ. To this end I strenuously contend with all the energy Christ so powerfully works in me."

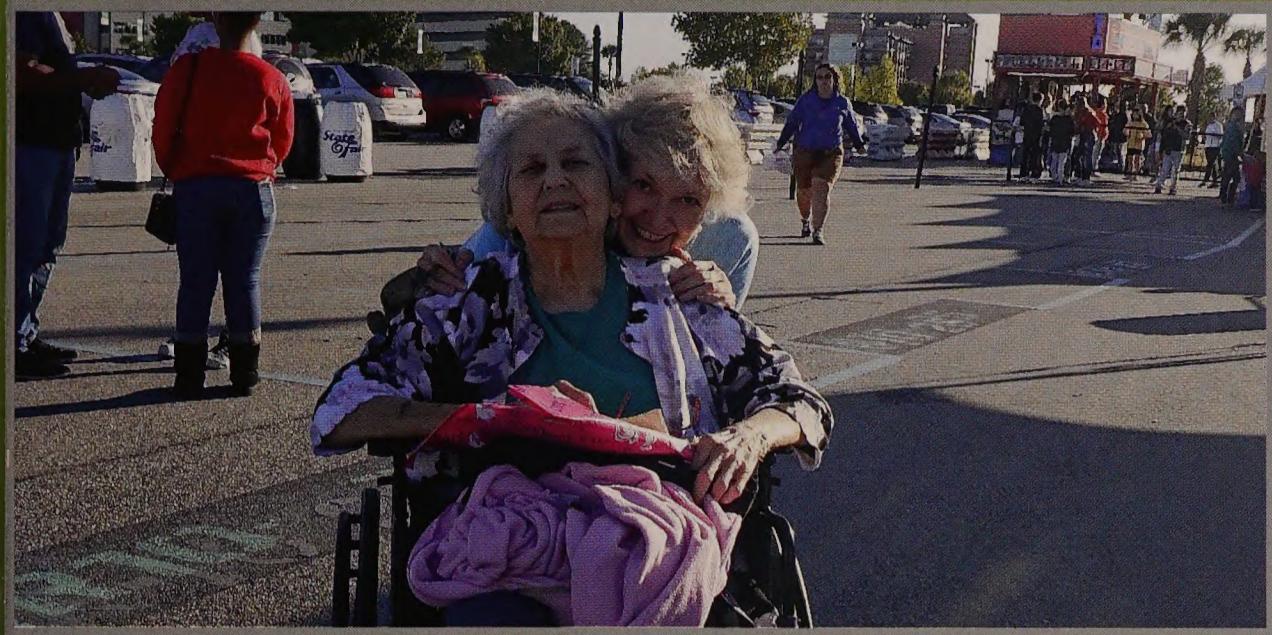

Colossians 1:28-29

Donna Thompson

Donna Thompson has brought such a light to the CIU campus. She is always willing to come along-side students and live life with them. She sacrifices her time in order to pour into students. She has spoken life into so many young women at CIU and she continues to seek to help, encourage and pray for students. Her love for students is a glimpse of how Christ loves us. Thank you Mrs. Donna for all you do and for who you are in Christ.

Anita J. Cooper

Anita Cooper has been teaching at CIU for 35 years and has unwavering dedication to her students. Her knowledge of scripture and how to effectively communicate the gospel to others is priceless. Anita's love for Christ as well as for her students is obvious to everyone around her. We are so grateful that Dr. Cooper has been a part of the CIU family. She has really shown us what it truly means to know Him and to make Him known. Thank you Anita for your time and love.

HOUSE COLLECTIVE

The House Collective is a year-round event where houses gather together and fight for their right to the Golden Laurels. It starts with the Throwdown where each house showcases their personality and what they stand for.

HOOGOON

The Hoedown is an event put on by student union. It's a time to let loose, dance, bob for apples, sit around a fire and channel your true country alter ego.

Winter Formal

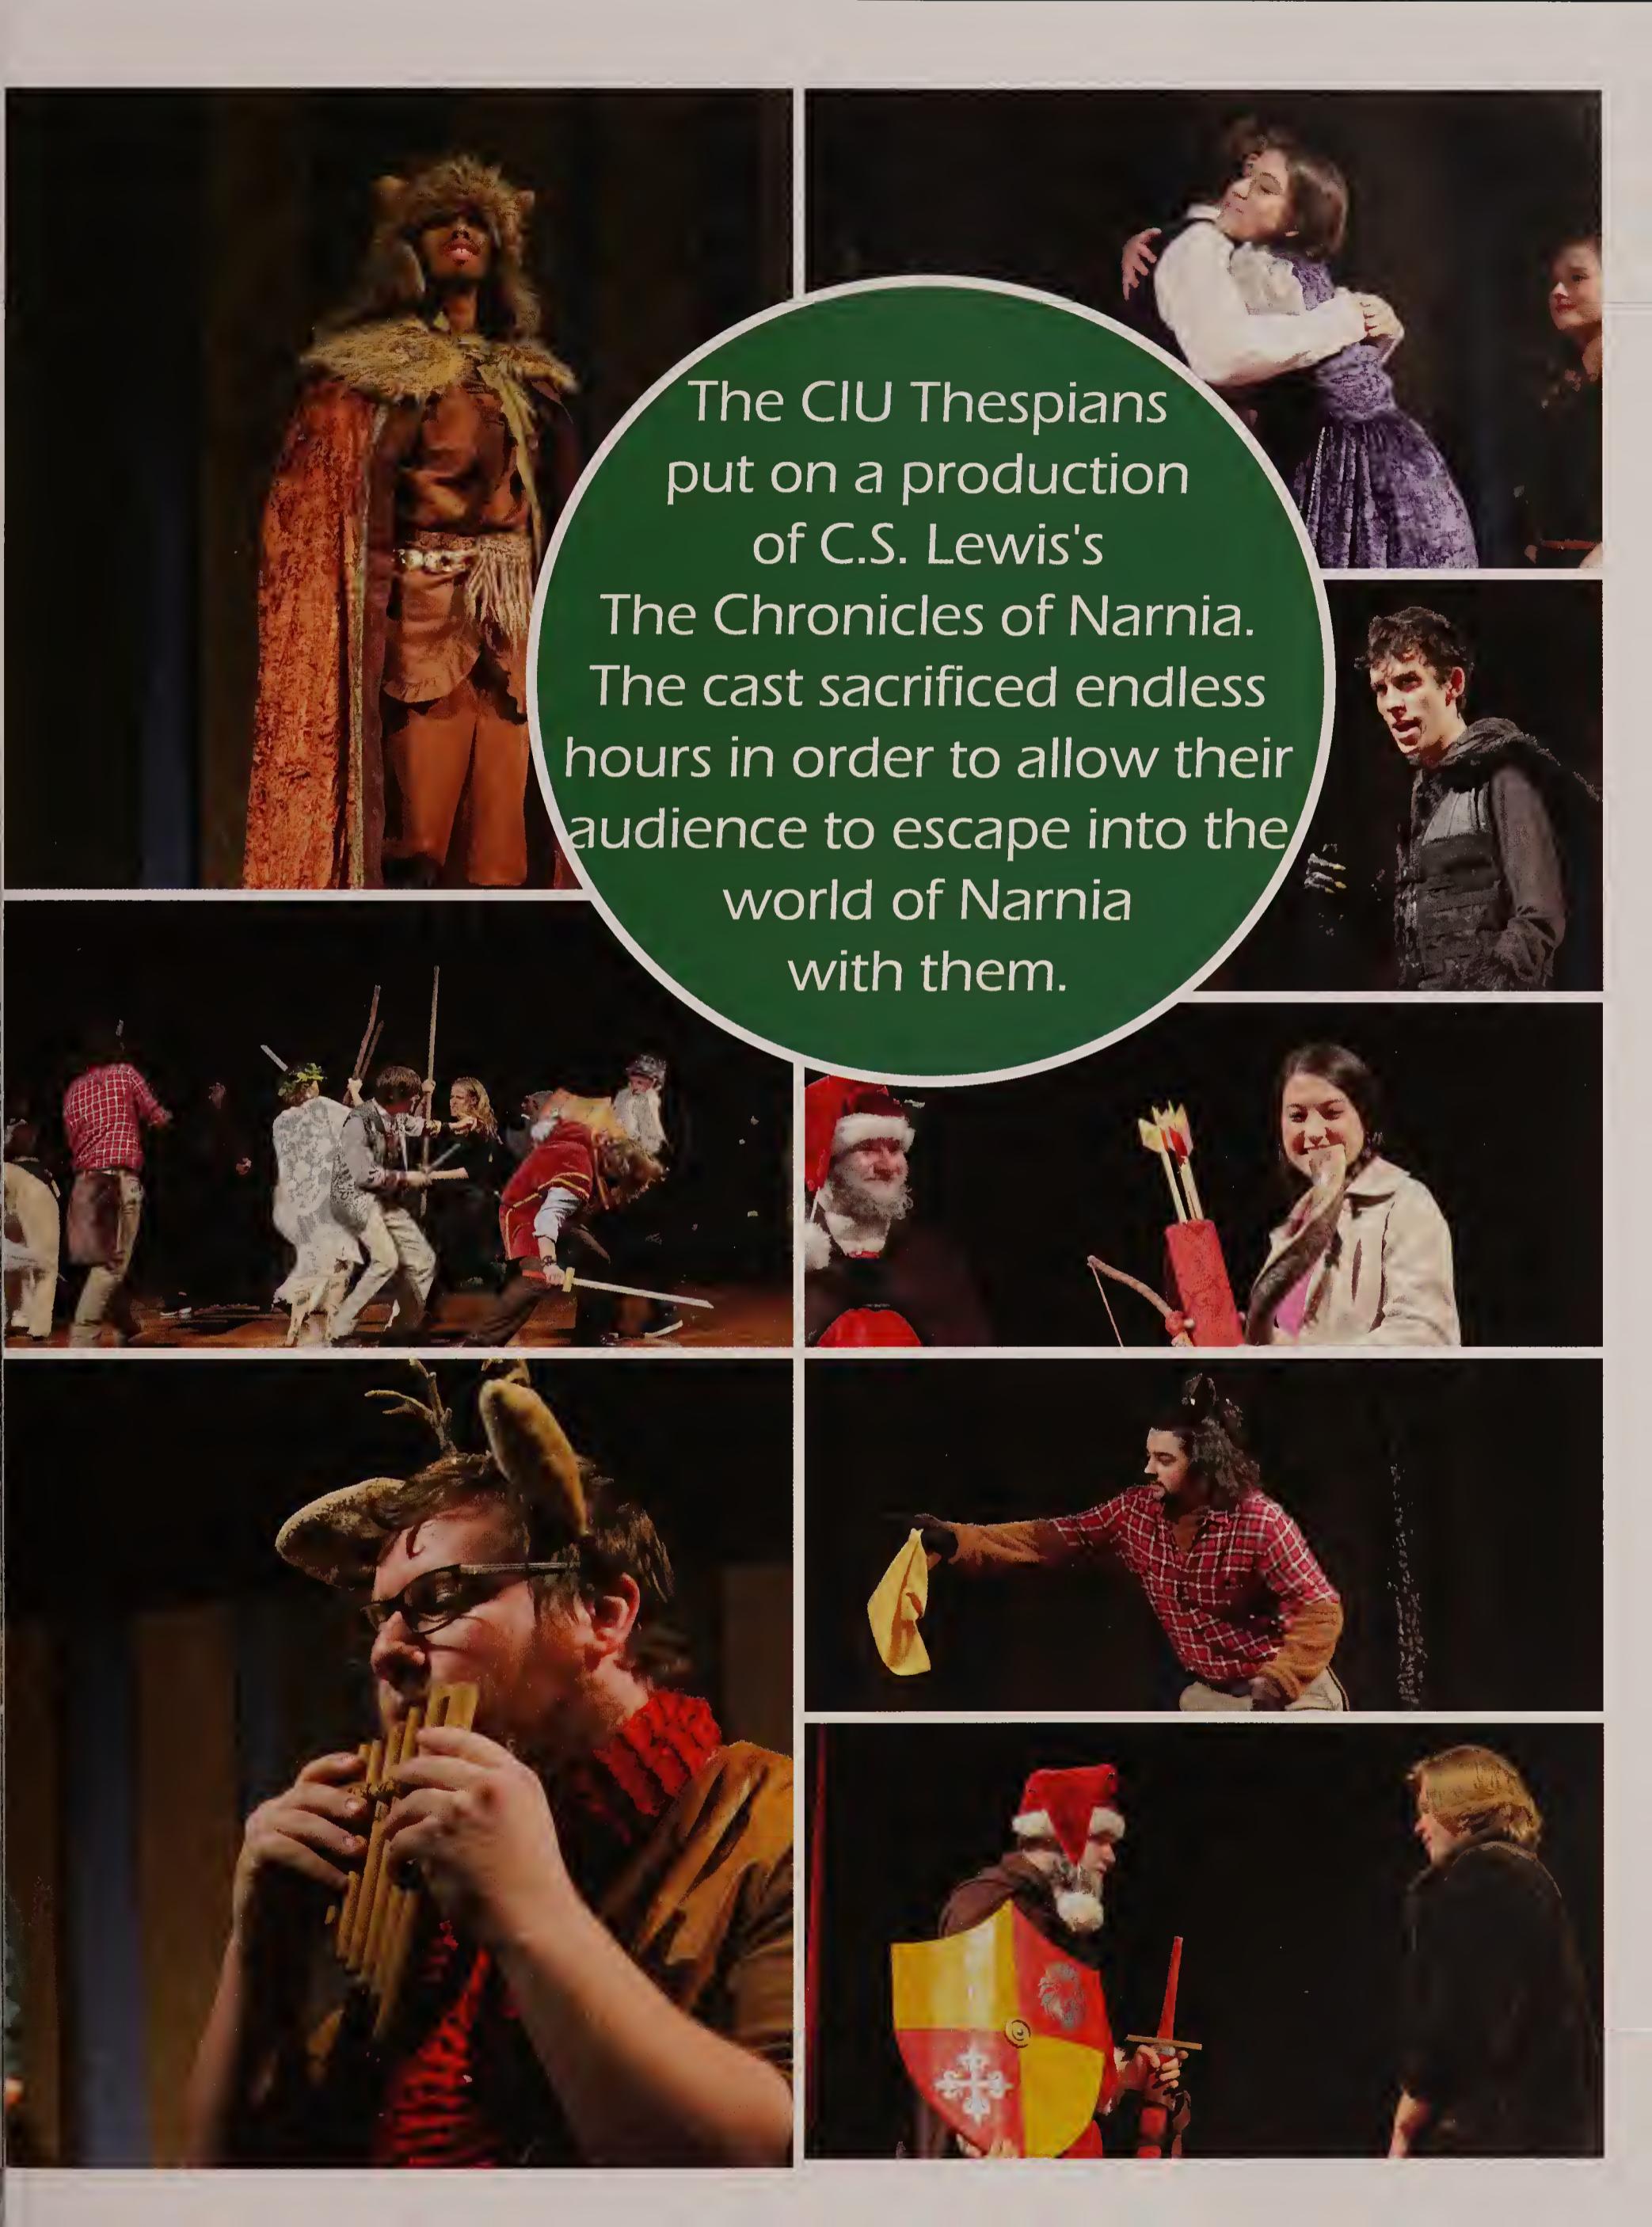

Food, dancing, and friends. What's a better trio? Winter formal is a time where students can forget about finals and just enjoy a night of fun!! Thank you Student Union for putting on such a wonderful event!

The Lion, the Witch, & the Wardrobe

The CIU Thespians put on a production of C.S. Lewis's The Chronicles of Narnia. The cast sacrificed endless hours in order to allow their audience to escape into the world of Narnia with them.

Go Wildcats!!!

Adventure

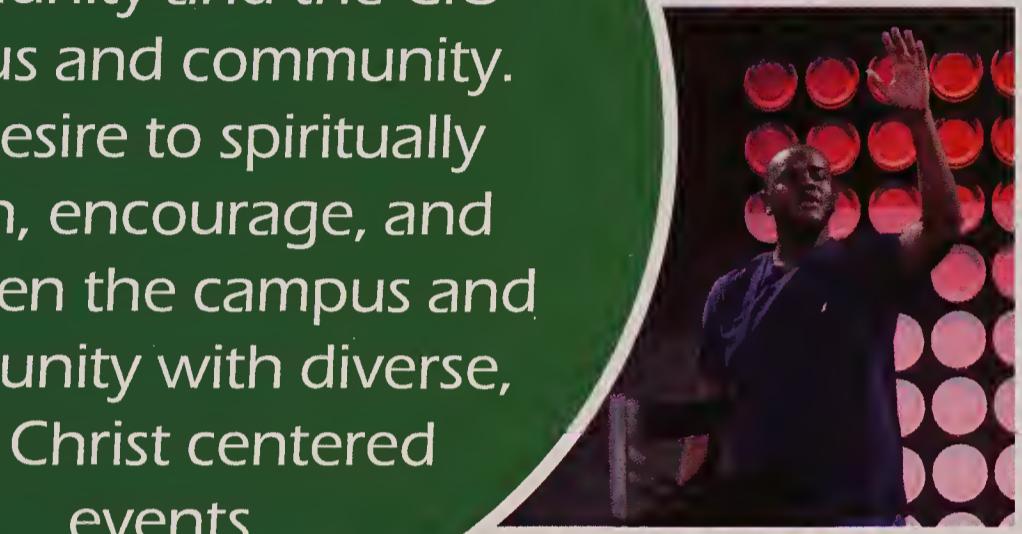

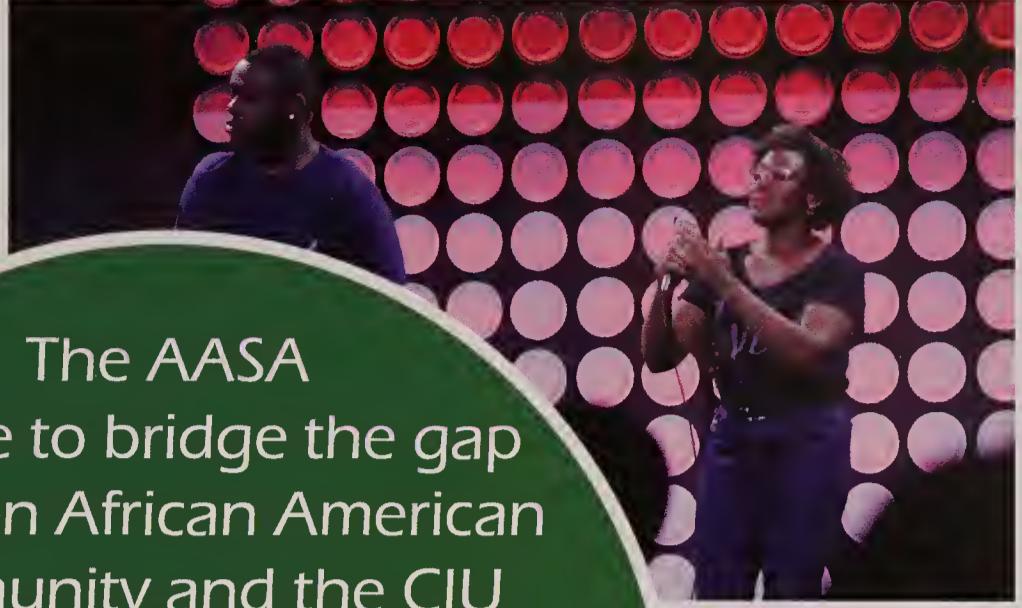

The adventure club strives to give student and outlet during the busy school year to enjoy nature. Being outside and exploring gives students the opportunity to laugh, adventure, and build lasting relationship with their fellow students outside of an academic setting.

ASA

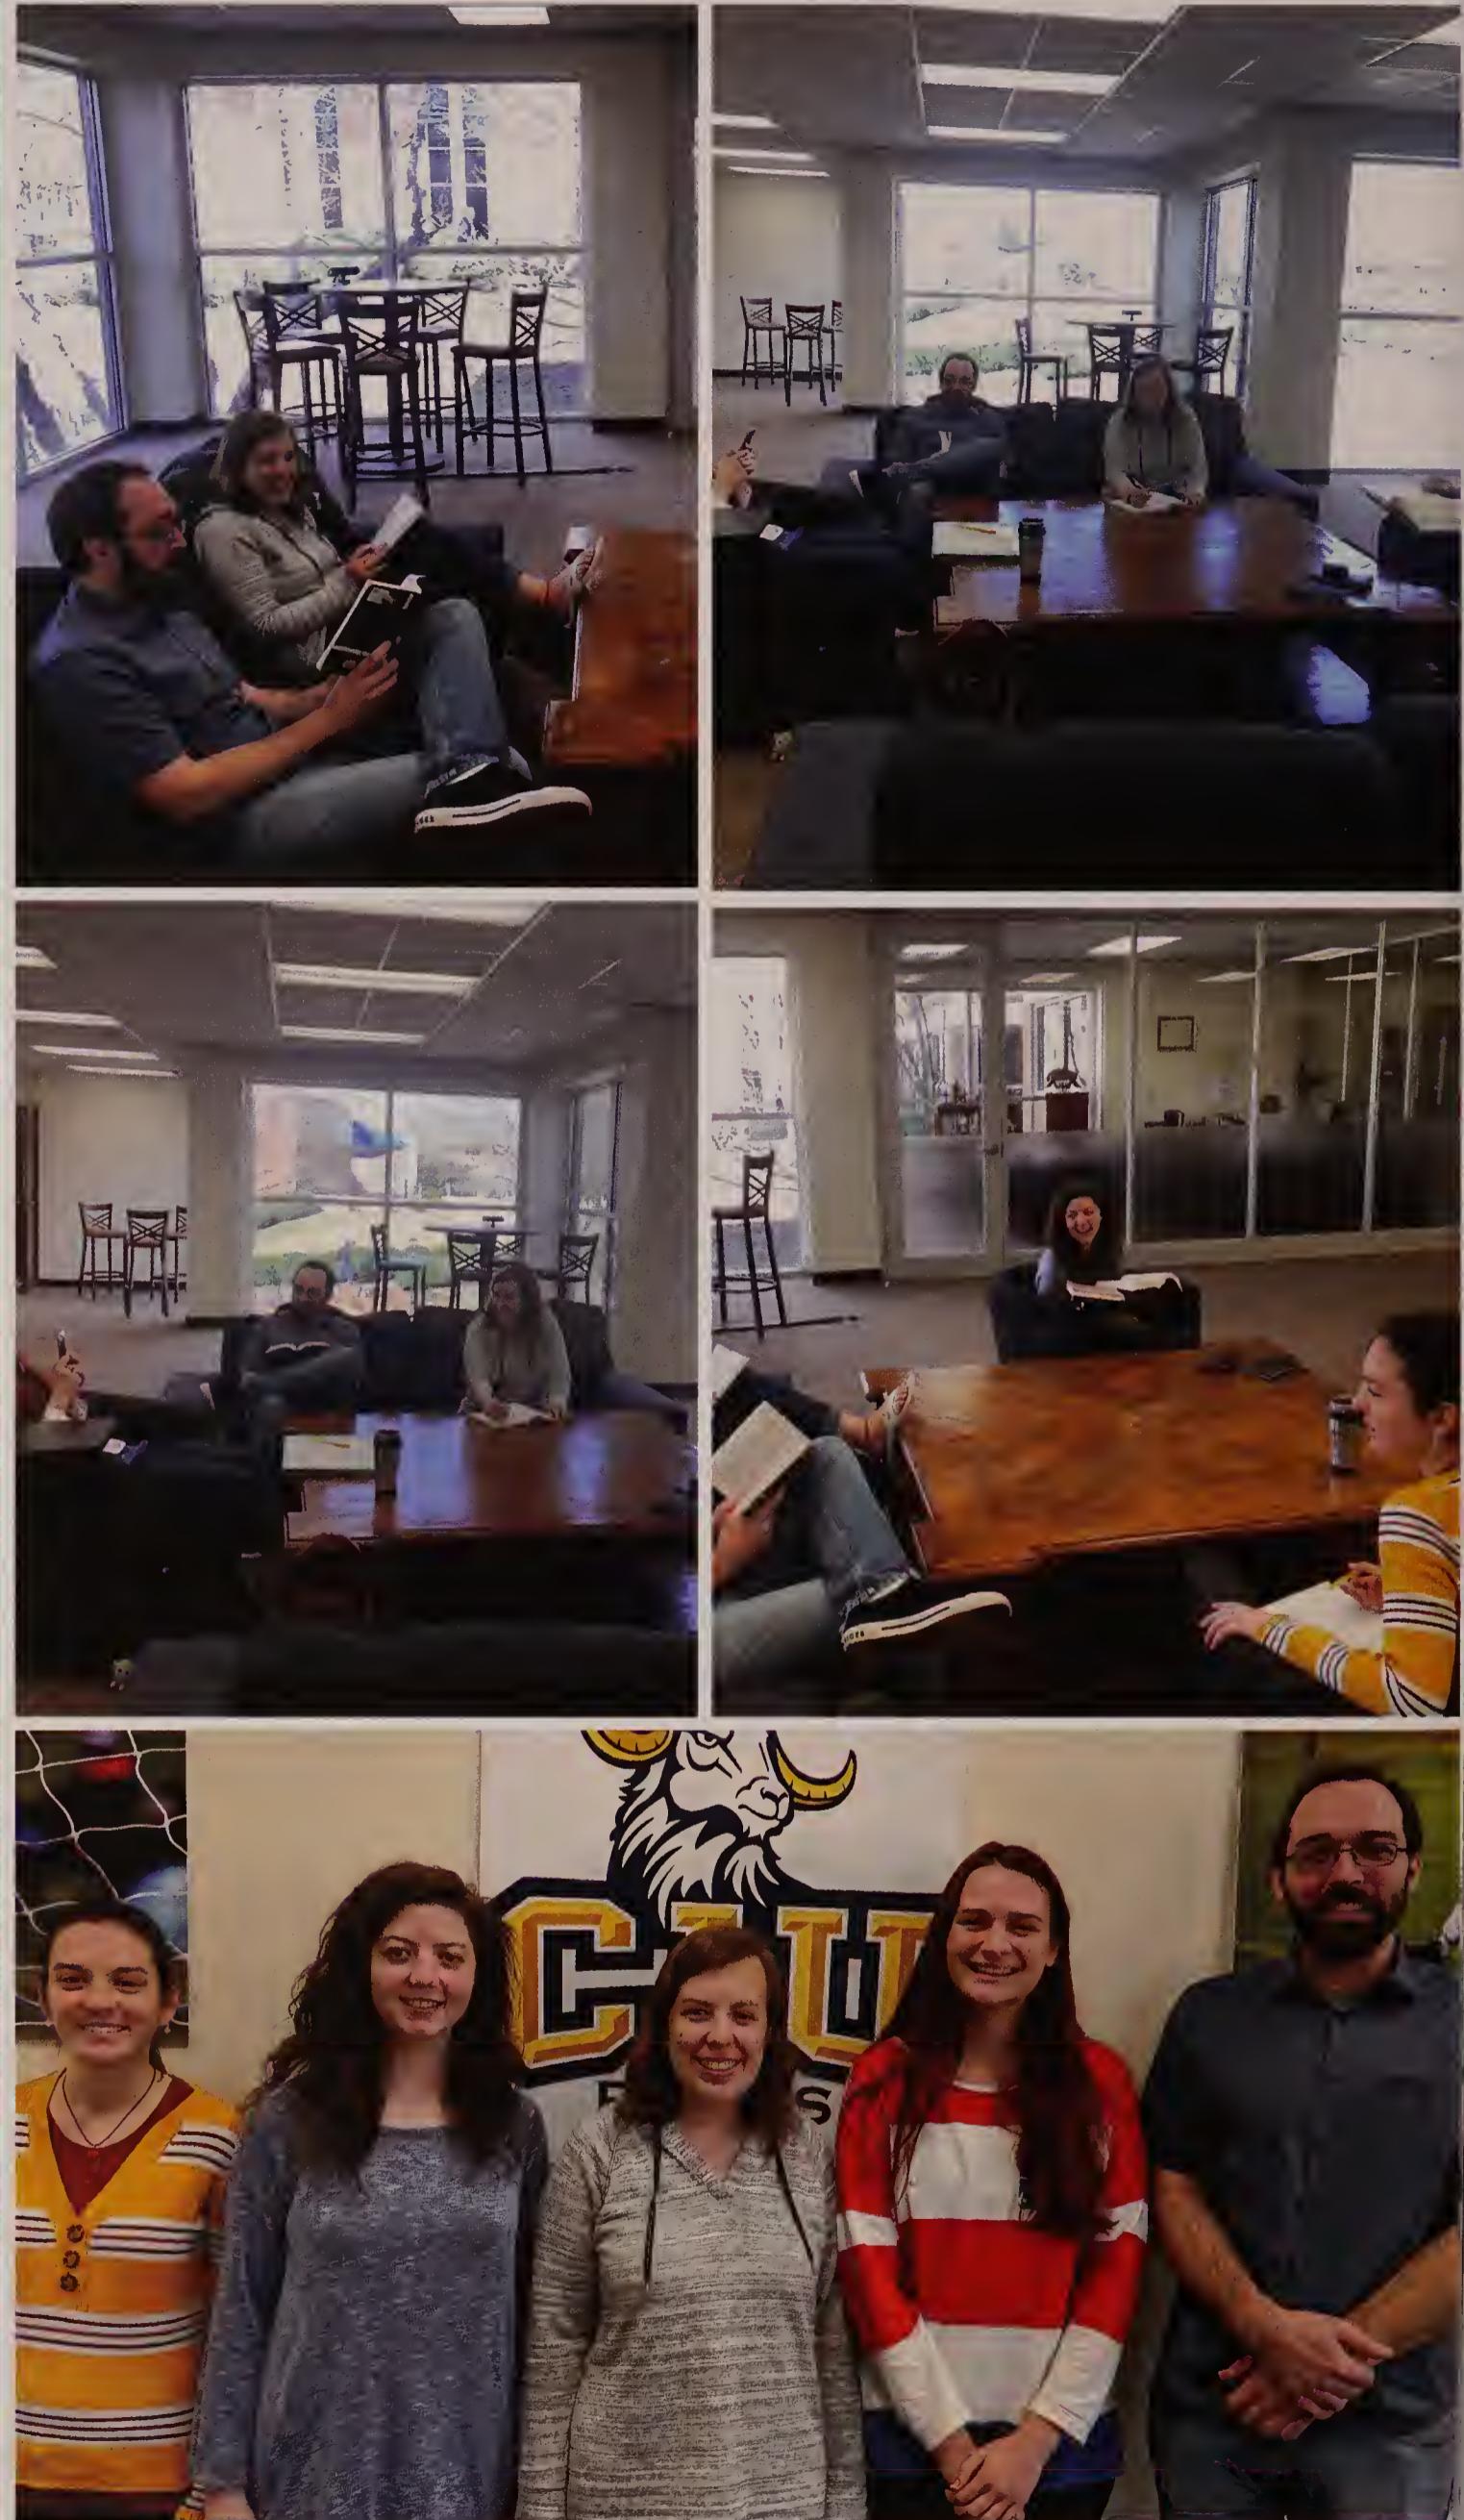

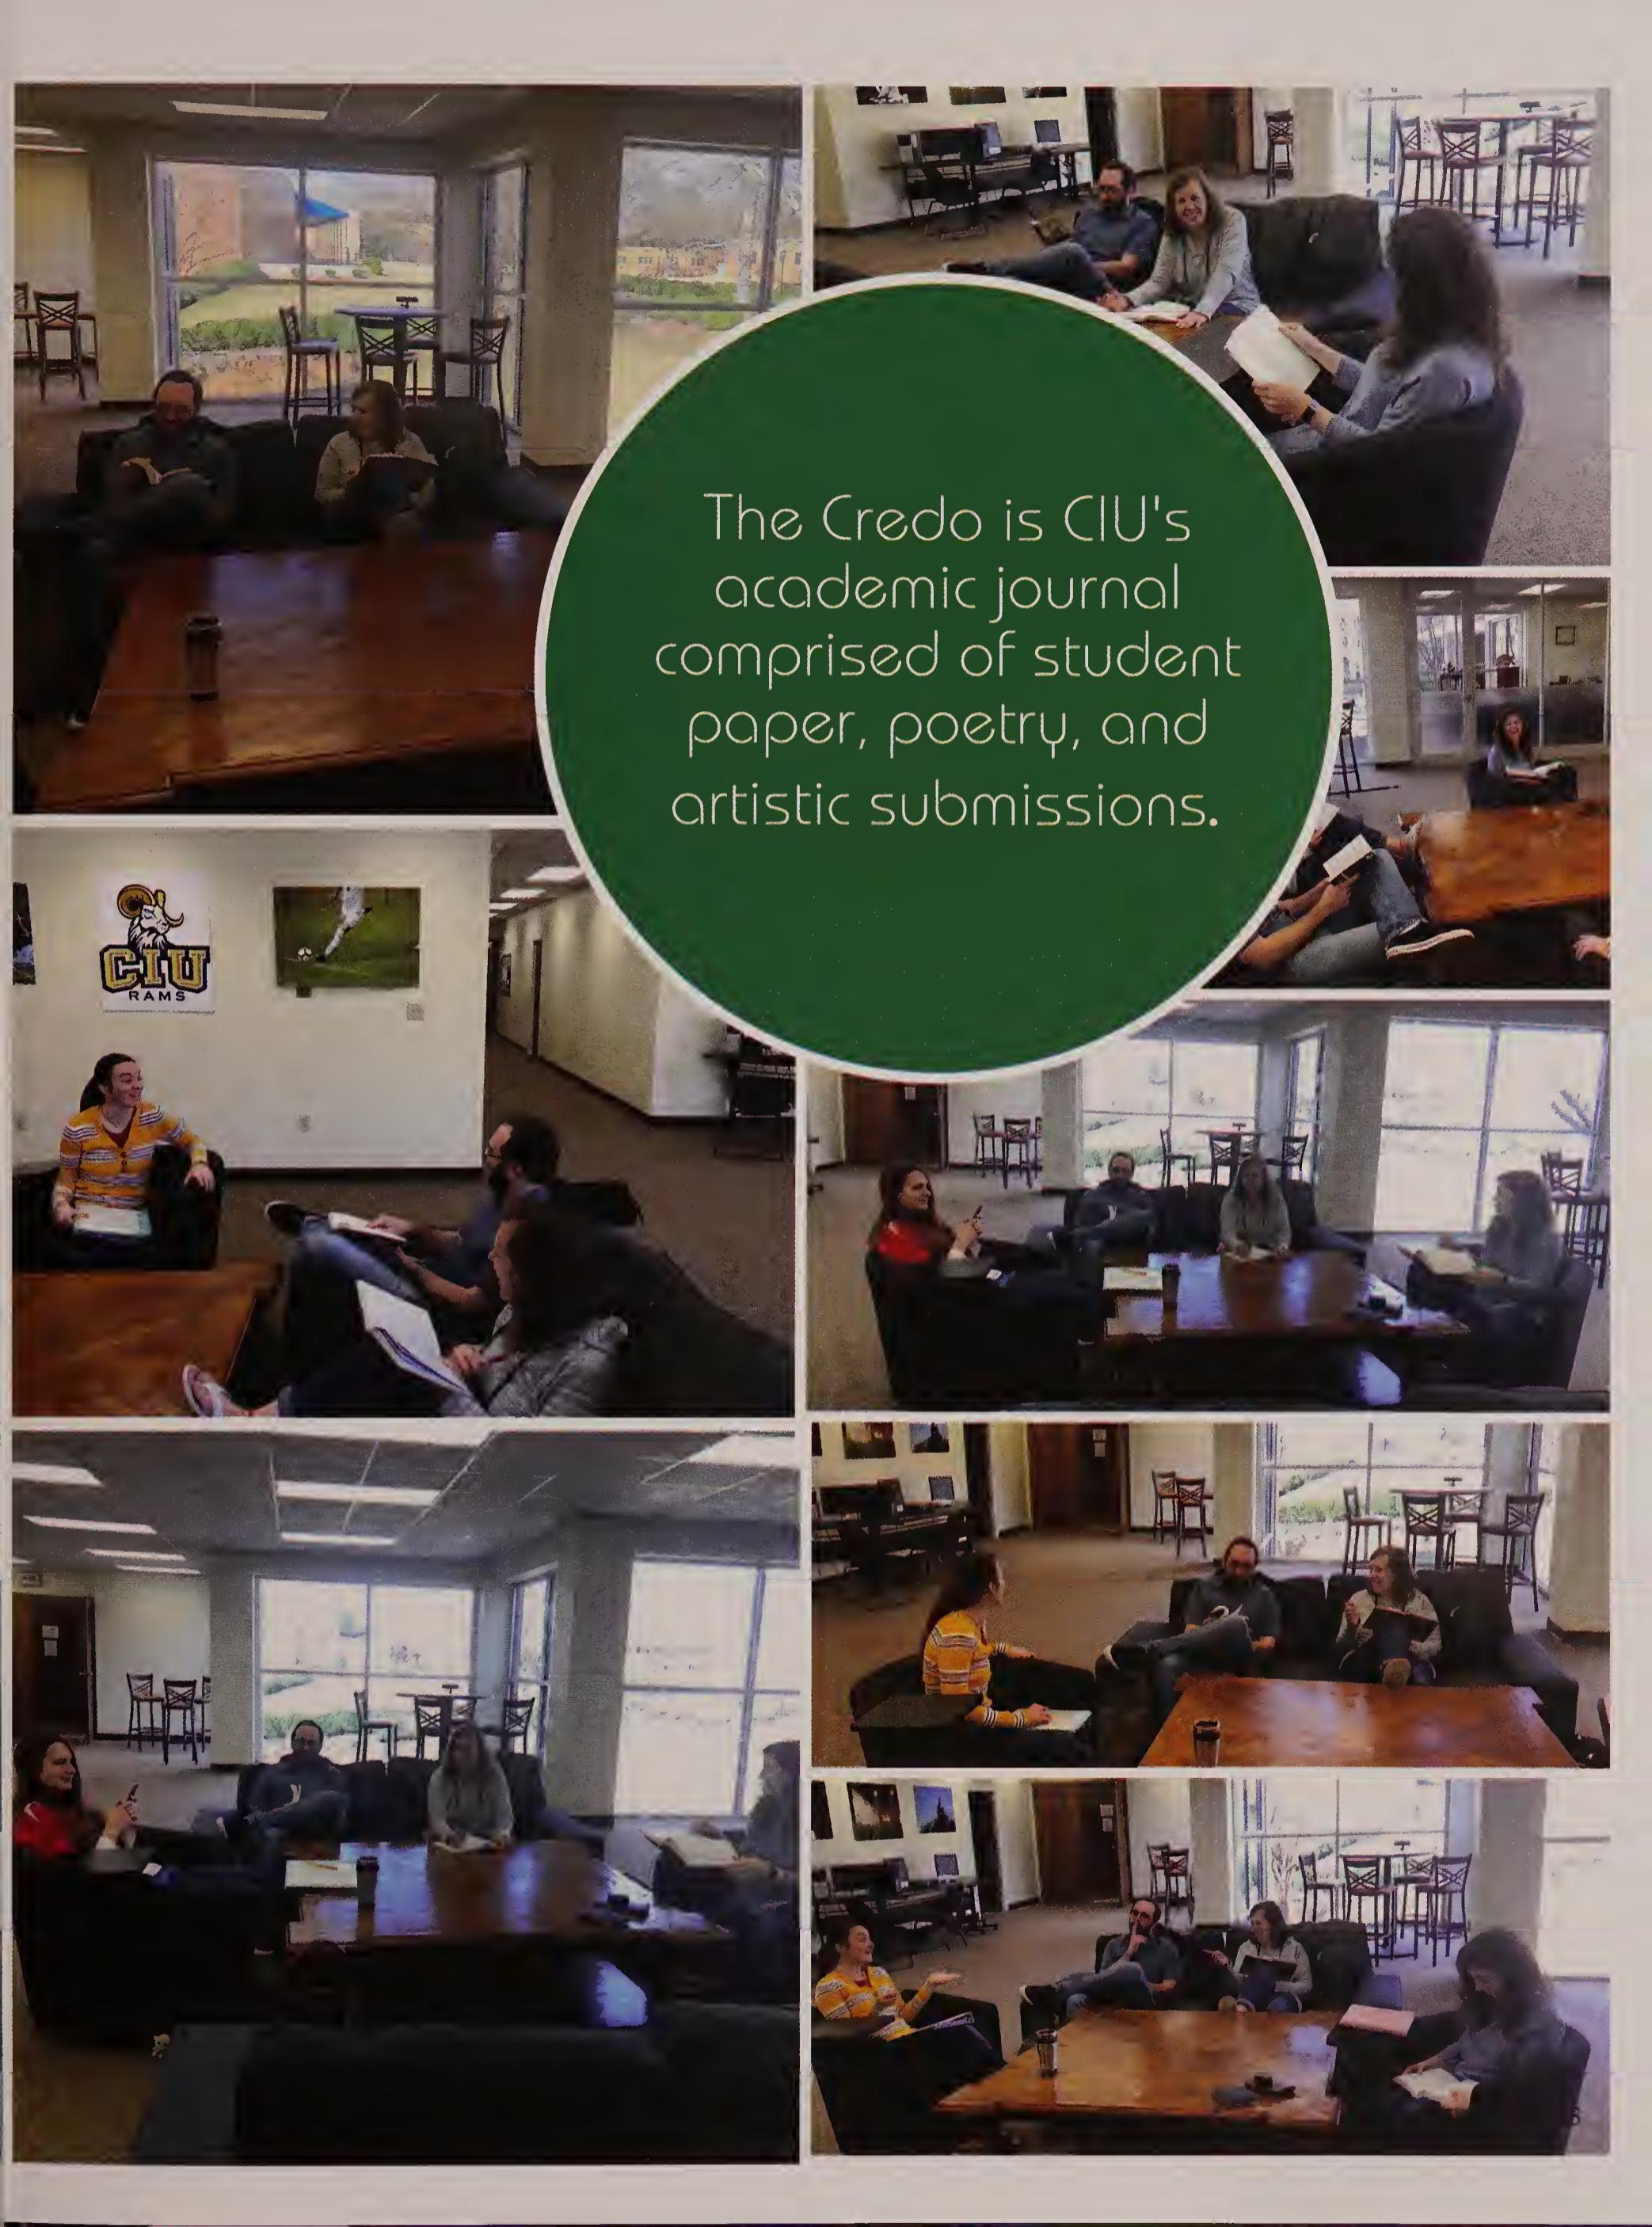

The AASA
is here to bridge the gap between African American community and the CIU
campus and community.
We desire to spiritually enrich, encourage, and enlighten the campus and
community with diverse,
but Christ centered
events.

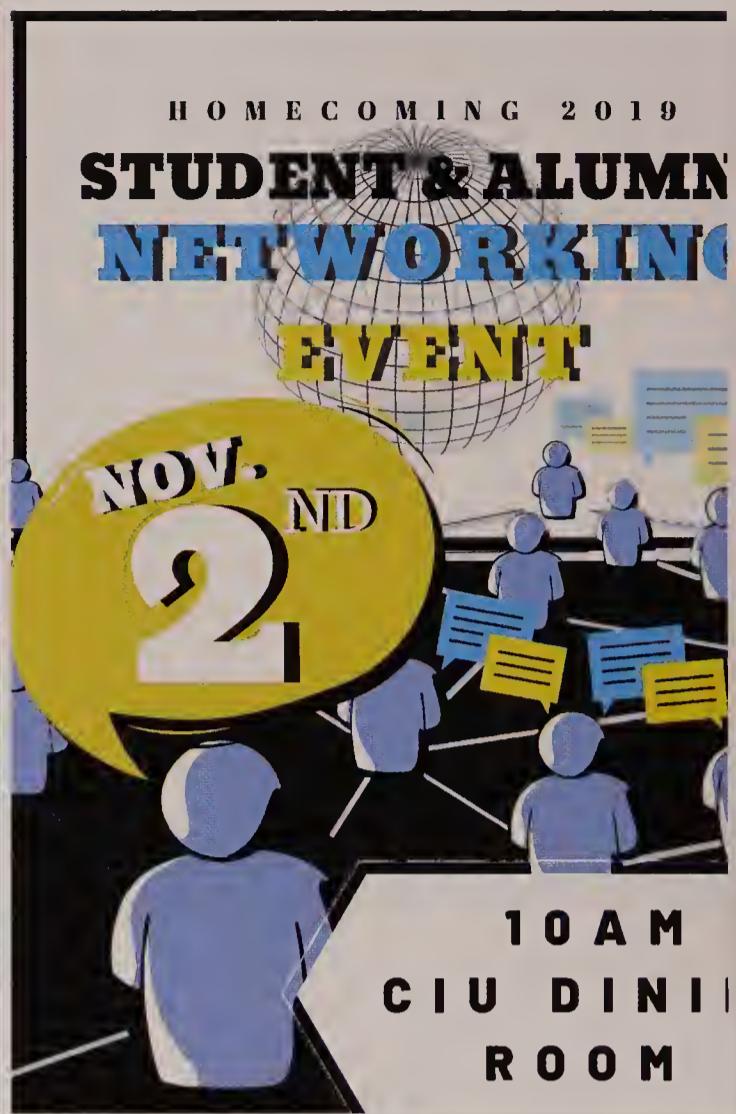

Oregon

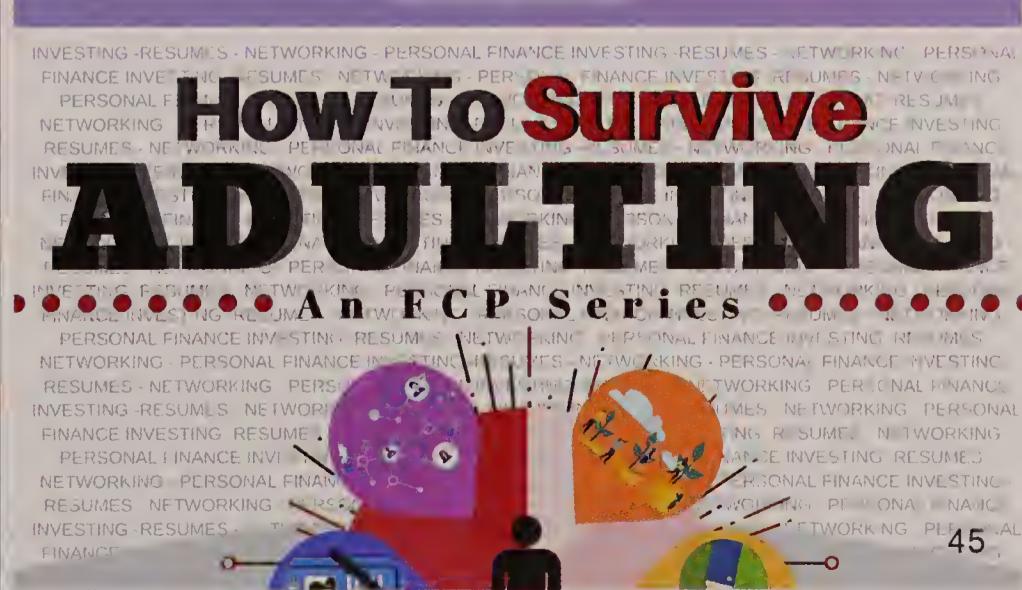

The Credo is CIU's academic journal comprised of student paper, poetry, and artistic submissions.

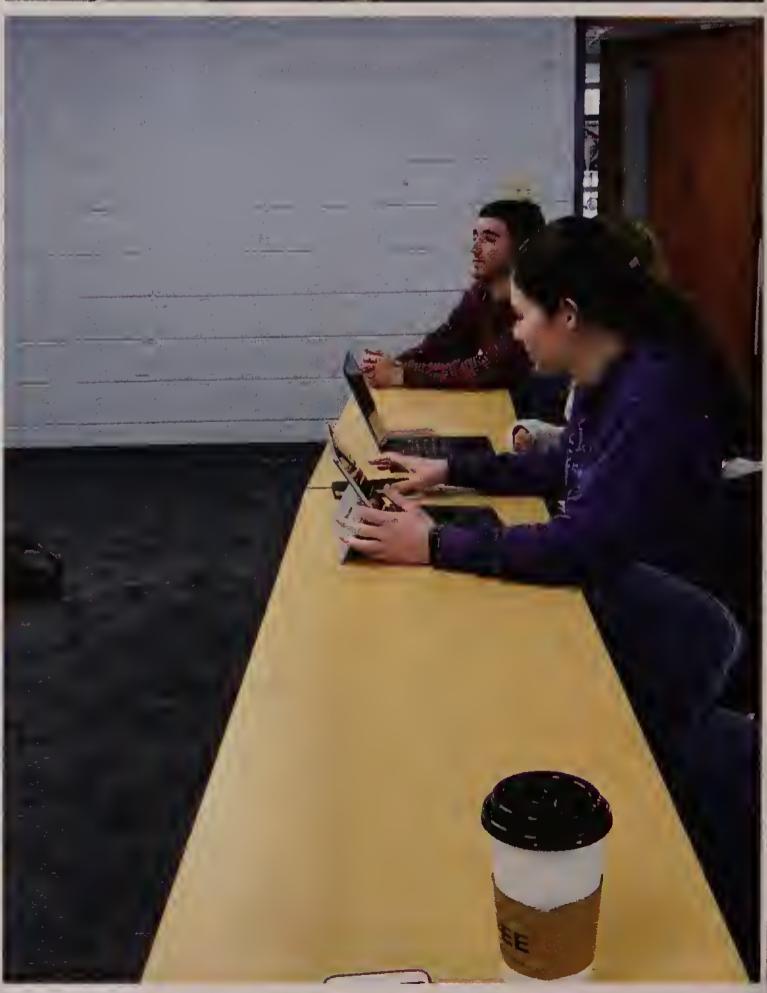

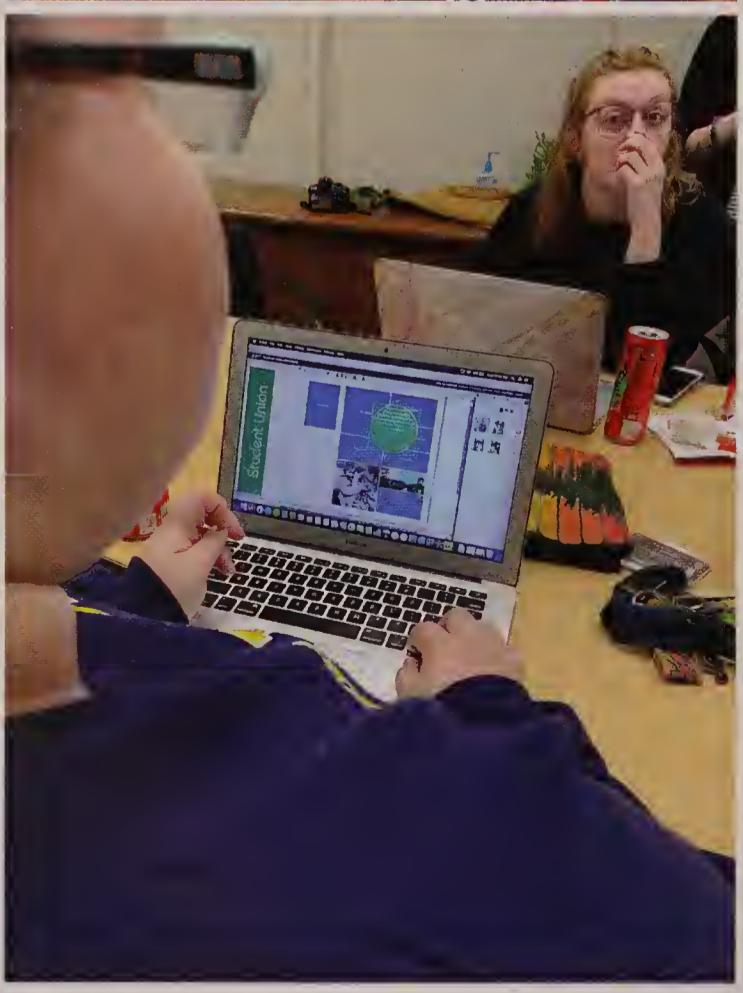

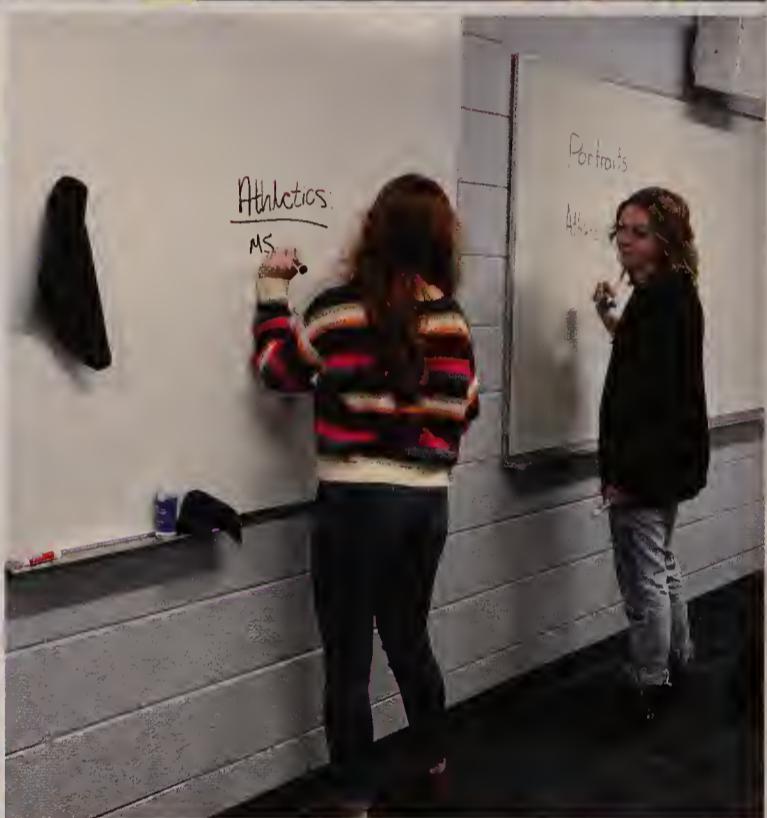

10 AM
CIU DINI
ROOM

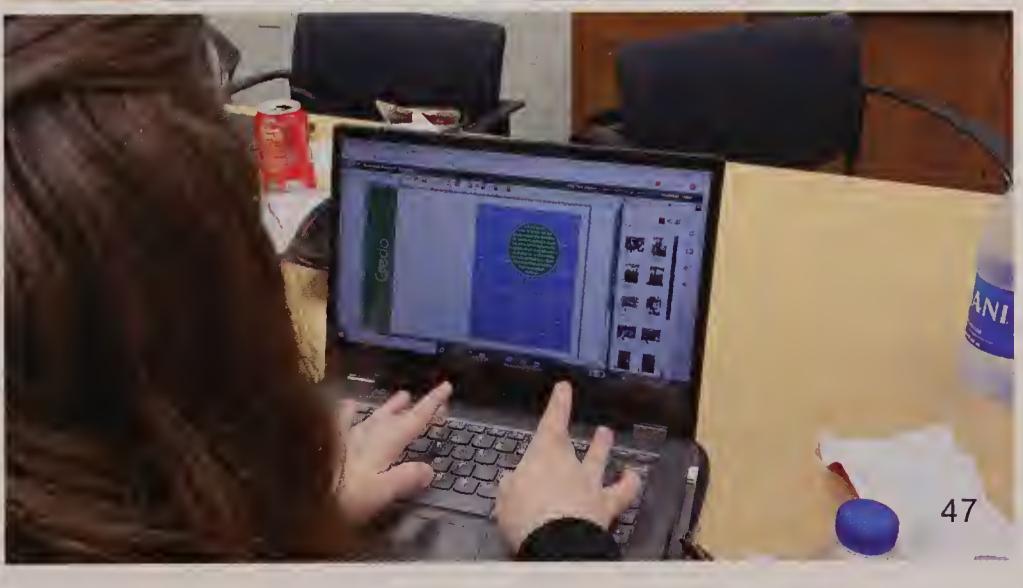

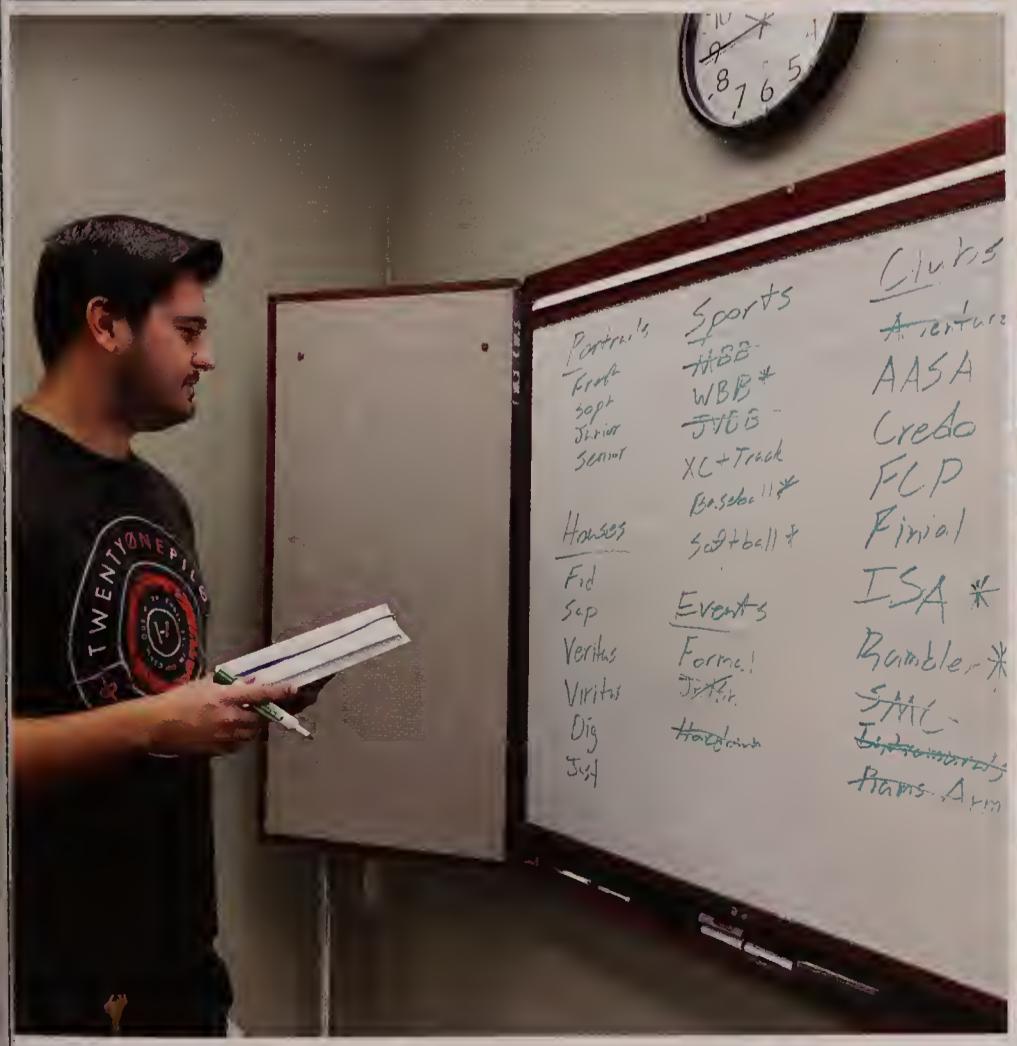

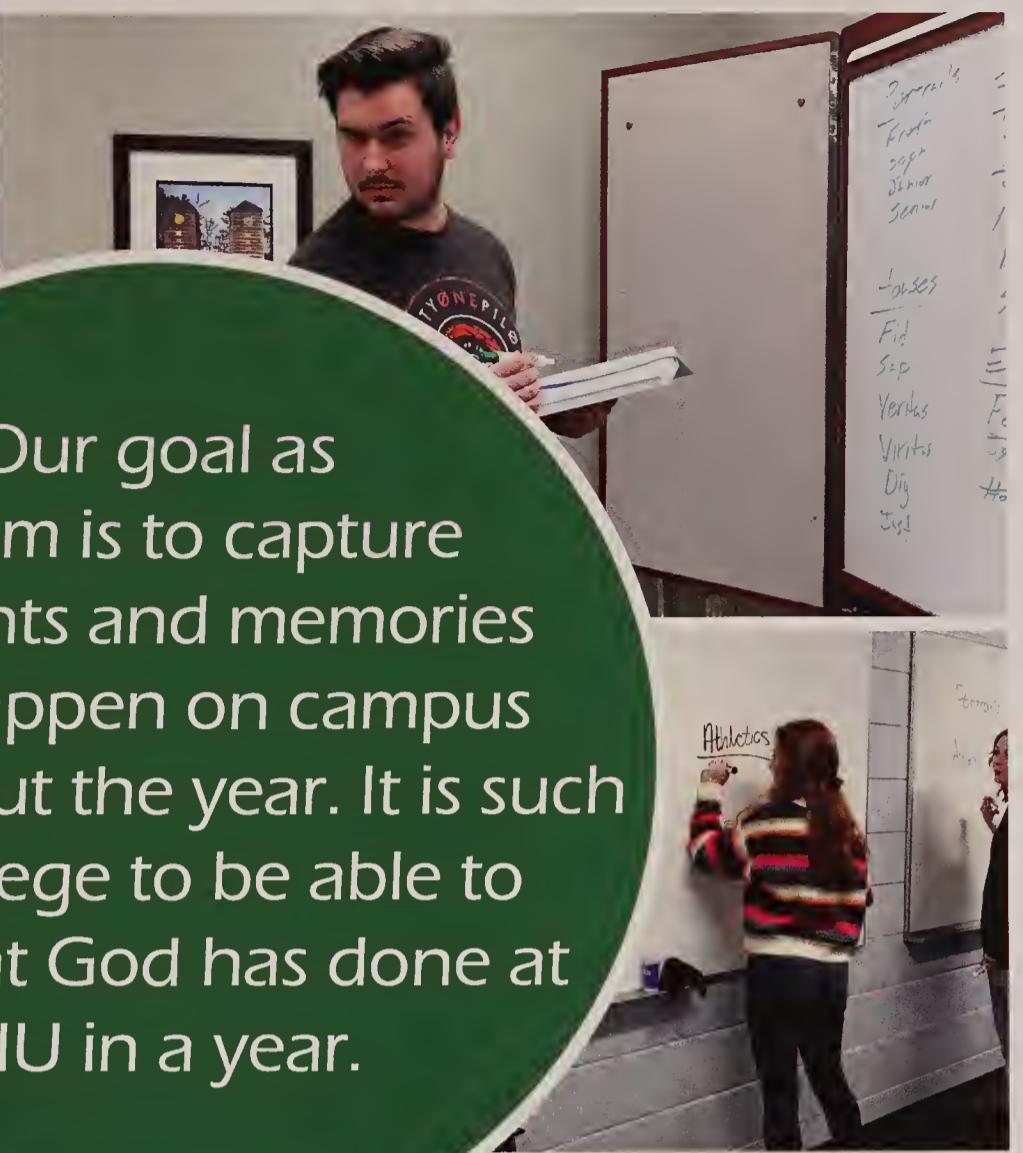

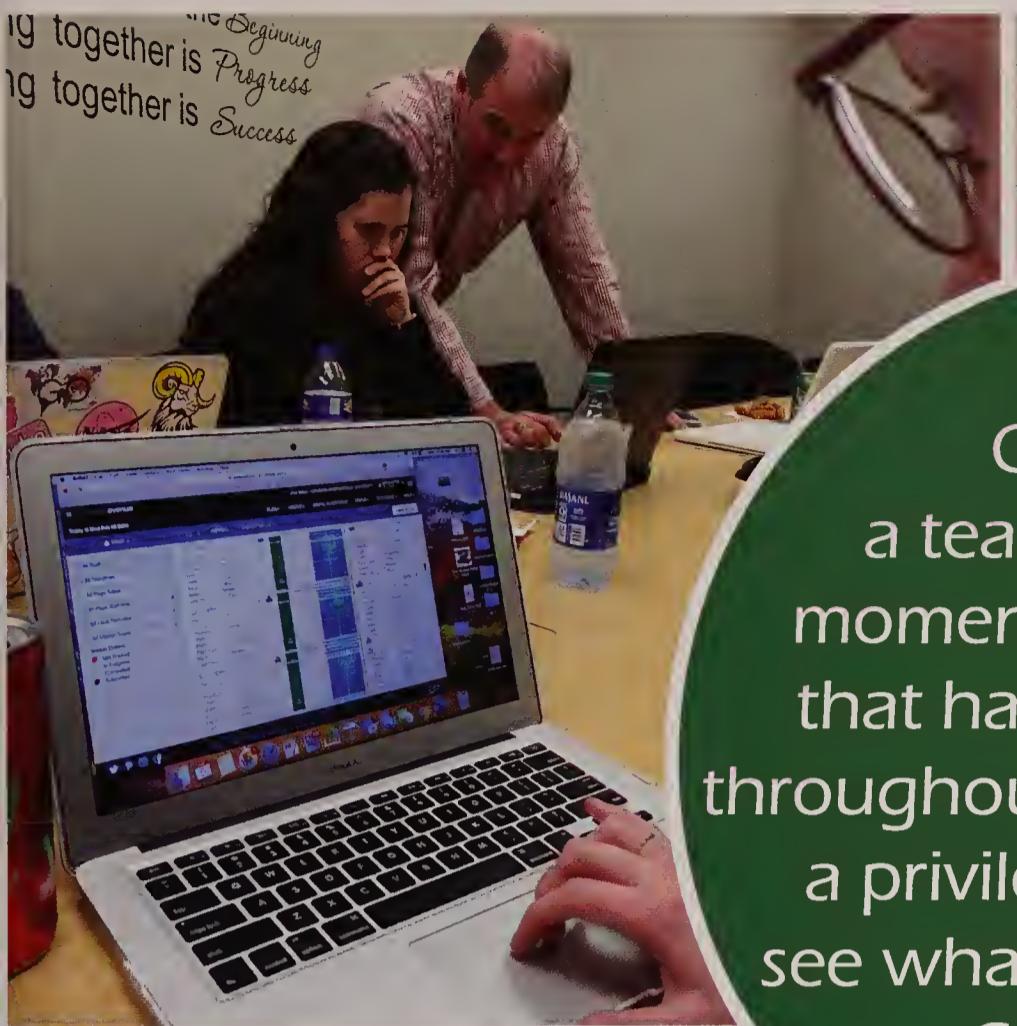

The Fellowship of Christian Professionals is an organization seeking to encourage fellowship, Christian outreach, and Professional development in the student body.

Student Life

Our goal as a team is to capture moments and memories that happen on campus throughout the year. It is such a privilege to be able to see what God has done at CIU in a year.

Student Association

The International Student Associations is an organization that merges the nationalities on CIU's campus to promote international friendships and an appreciation for culture.

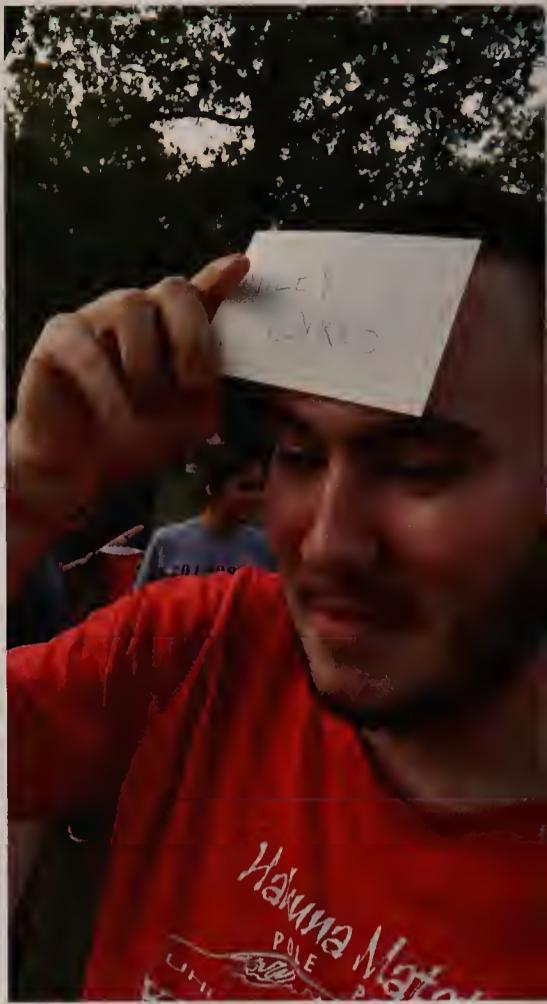

GOVETT

Our mission is to bring students together to fellowship and have fun together under the name of God. We host tournaments, game nights, and other various events that connect students with each other and build a stronger community. We strive to create an atmosphere that encourages excitement, humility, and grace. We encourage you to come and hang out with us!

WEEKEND

MuKappa is an organization dedicated to providing a safe and understanding community for students who have grown up overseas or experienced a dramatic cross-cultural transition.

The Rambler Student Magazine

The Rambler is a student led publication that provides content about campus wide events and activities seeking to inform and entertain.

Don't forget to read the pun's page!

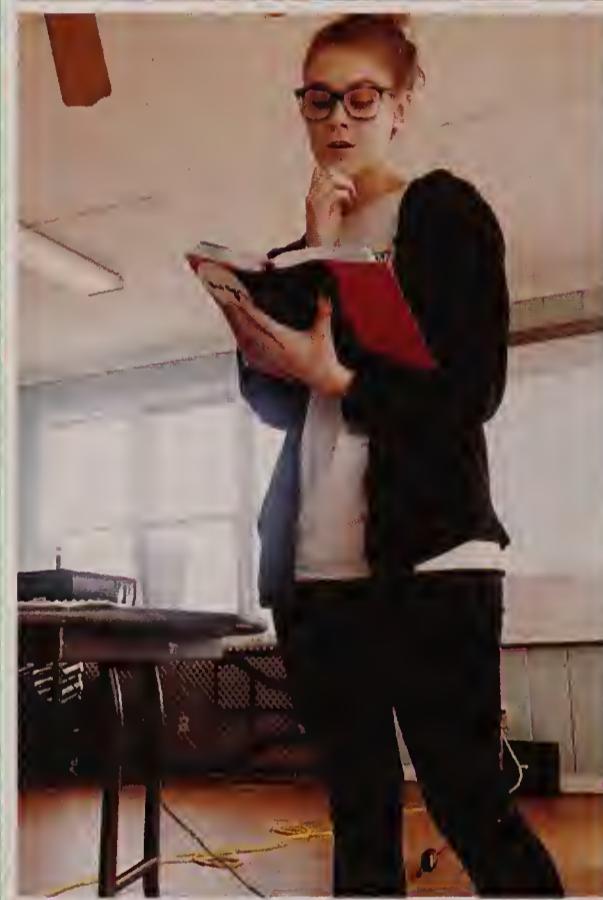

UNIVERSITY

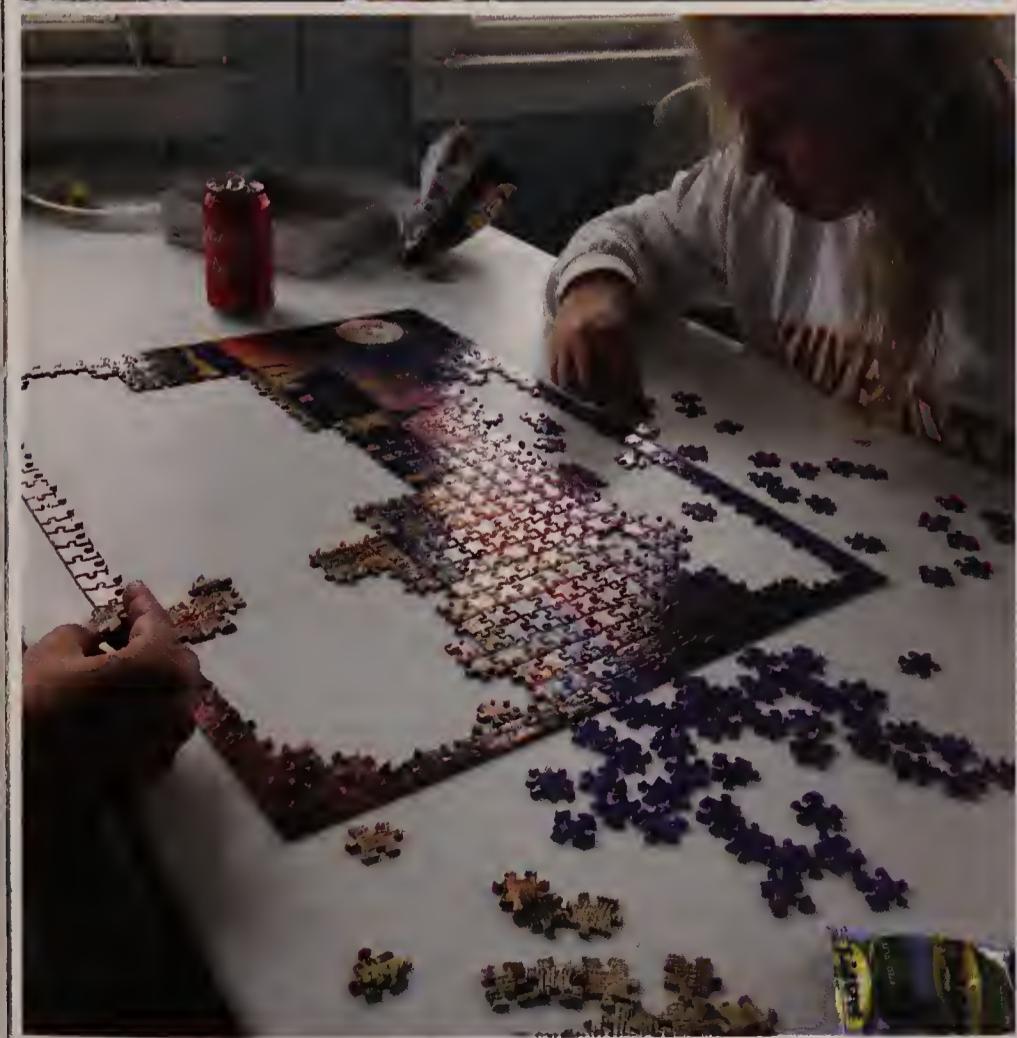

SMC exists to equip students for real-life ministry by providing opportunities to impact CIU, the people of Columbia, and the world. We do this by having events that focus on the Monticello Road community, such as our annual food outreach, as well as putting on events for the student body in where we intentionally do so to grow relationships.

Student Union

Student Union works to help facilitate community. They plan Formal and Hoedown which are two of the most well attended events each year. They understand the burnt out that comes with college so they also plan a beach and mountain trip during the year to allow students to get away from campus and fellowship with other students.

Interim S

CIU offers many intramural sports. However the most popular by far are frisbee and soccer. Teams compete against one another in friendly matches, with just enough rivalry to make it exciting.

GIU FIR M E S T R O M E

Our athletes put in so much time and effort into their sport. As a school we love to cheer on our friends who represent our school in the sports arena. Ram's Army allows students to band together and show school spirit.

CIU BOWL

The CIU Bowl wraps up Homecoming week. It's a time to cheer on your fellow classmates and allows a fun atmosphere for former students to engage in the current CIU community. This year the girls gold team won the early games and the boys blue team was able to leave with a win!!

CIU Athletics

Mission Statement

"CIU Athletics is a community of believers who exists to glorify God by using sports as a platform to impact the nations with the message of Christ."

Fall 2019 brought lessons for the Women's Soccer team, lessons that gives CIU hope for a great future! With 7 games decided by only 1 goal, the team persevered and grew thru adversity. The team learned lessons that demanded grace, love and acceptance for one another. The future looks bright for the CIU Women's Soccer Team!

Fall 2019 saw a great group of young men as well as a very talented team. As the season progressed, they grew immensely. We are excited for the future of this young CIU team!

Exciting year! A lot of school records including the Women's Cross Country Team winning the NCCAA South Region Cross Country Championship and CIU's Janna Imes winning Individual Honors! And Blaise Shields wrapped up his career with an NCCAA All-Region Performance!

A new young team working hard and unified with goals of being their very best! With our new Mondo Track, we are preparing to host AAC Championships Spring 2020!

In its second year, the CIU Volleyball program has seen tremendous growth, producing an AAC Freshman of the Year and an NCCAA All-American. Through dedication and discipline, they have worked hard to develop a family culture that puts God first and excels both on the court and in the classroom.

CIU Men's Golf Team hosted the NCCAA South Region Tournament and received a bid to go to the NCCAA National Championship in Florida. With a new coach this Spring, Tucker MacDonald, the team is poised for a future of success!

Coming off a first-time South Region Championship and playing for the first time in the NCCAA National Tournament, the CIU Men's Basketball Team is anticipating another good year and competing in more post-season play. One of the year's highlights for our fans and our team was the much-anticipated game at The Colonial Life Arena – Rams vs. Gamecocks!

The CIU Rams Women's Basketball Team has been a tremendous example of hard work and perseverance. With a squad size doubled from last year's, the women's basketball team has lead the Rams Athletics Department in their commitment to community service.

"Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already arrived at my goal, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus."

Philippians 3:12-14

"We are courageous, God-fearing women, who show Christ on and off the field by being contagiously competitive, passionate and unified. Our purpose is to be world-changers who shine Christ's light for impact on our mission field, consistently working to be successful leaders who are lead by God."

From Coach Johnson preparing for the inaugural season of CIU Baseball, "I am cherishing and will never forget my first squad here at CIU. These guys have come to CIU, buying into our vision and will always have a special place with me and school history!" (First Home CIU Baseball game: February 17, 2020)

"Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win. Everyone who competes in the games exercises self-control in all things. They then do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable.

Therefore I run in such a way, as not without aim; I box in such a way, as not beating the air; but I discipline my body and make it my slave, so that, after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified."

1 Corinthians 9:24-27

WENNS Soccer

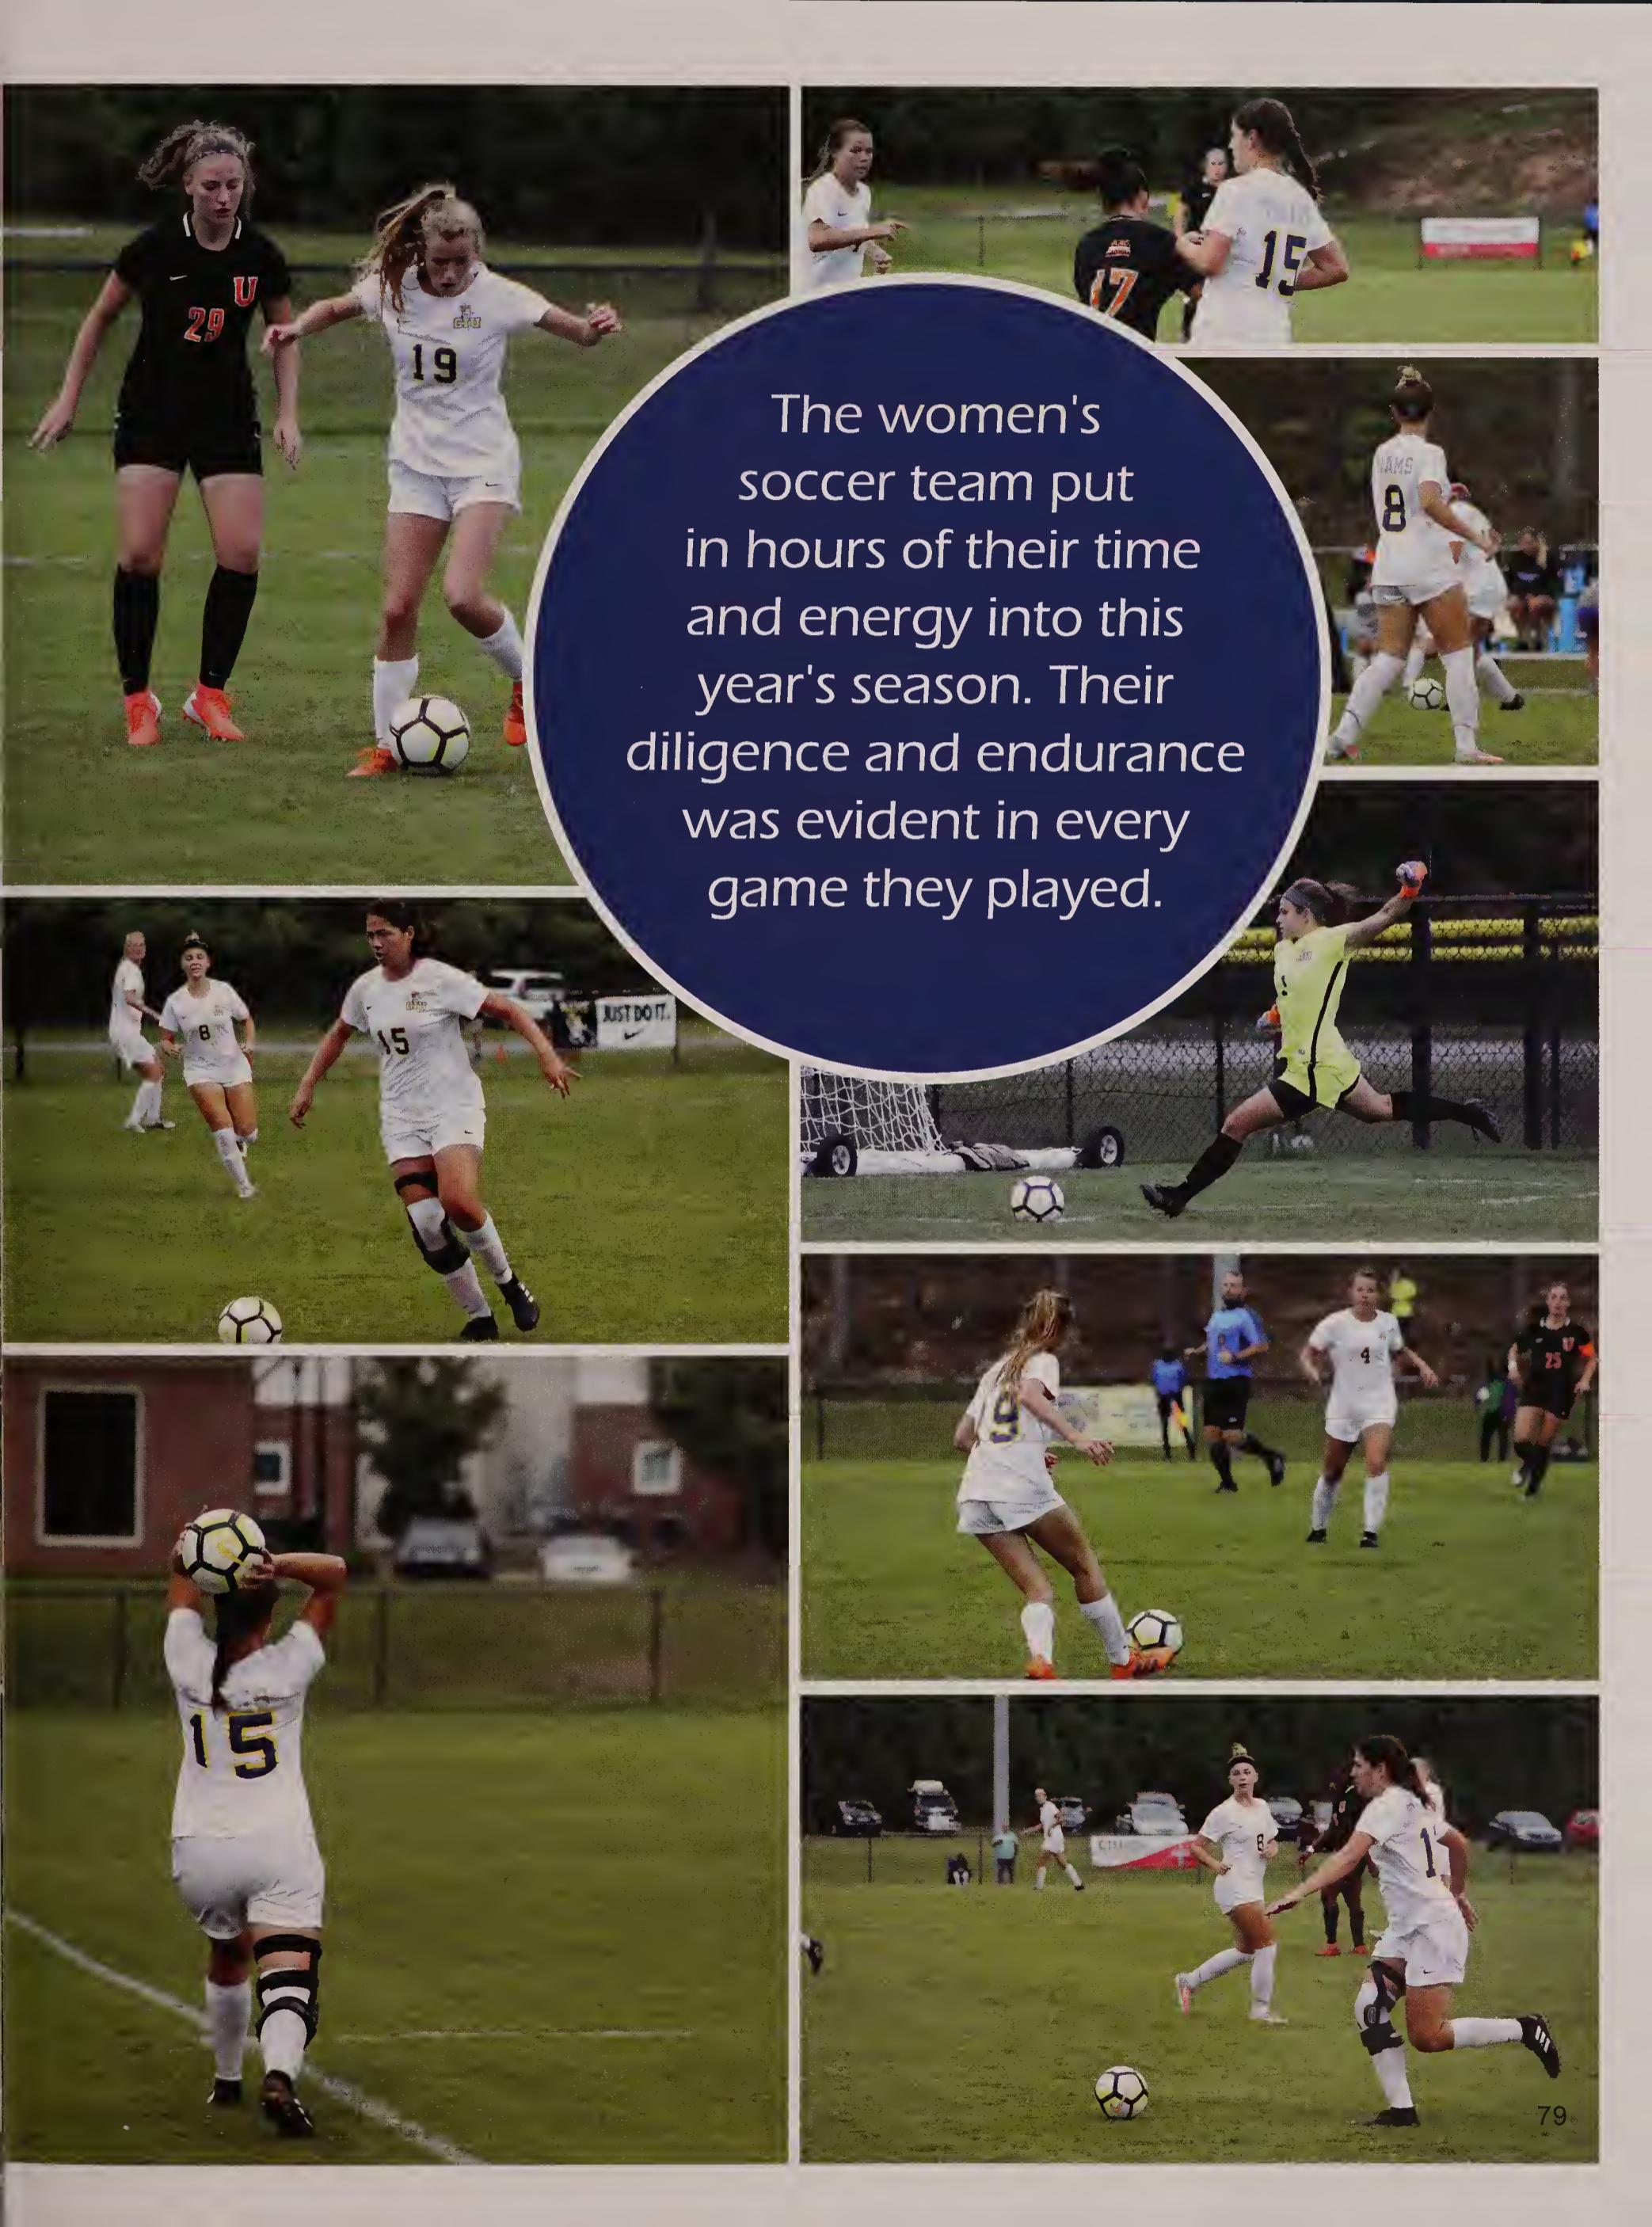

The men's soccer team had a great season this year. They fought their way to the quarter finals in the AAC tournament through talent, hardwork, and diligence. The team learned how to interact well as teammates and as friends.

Season 3

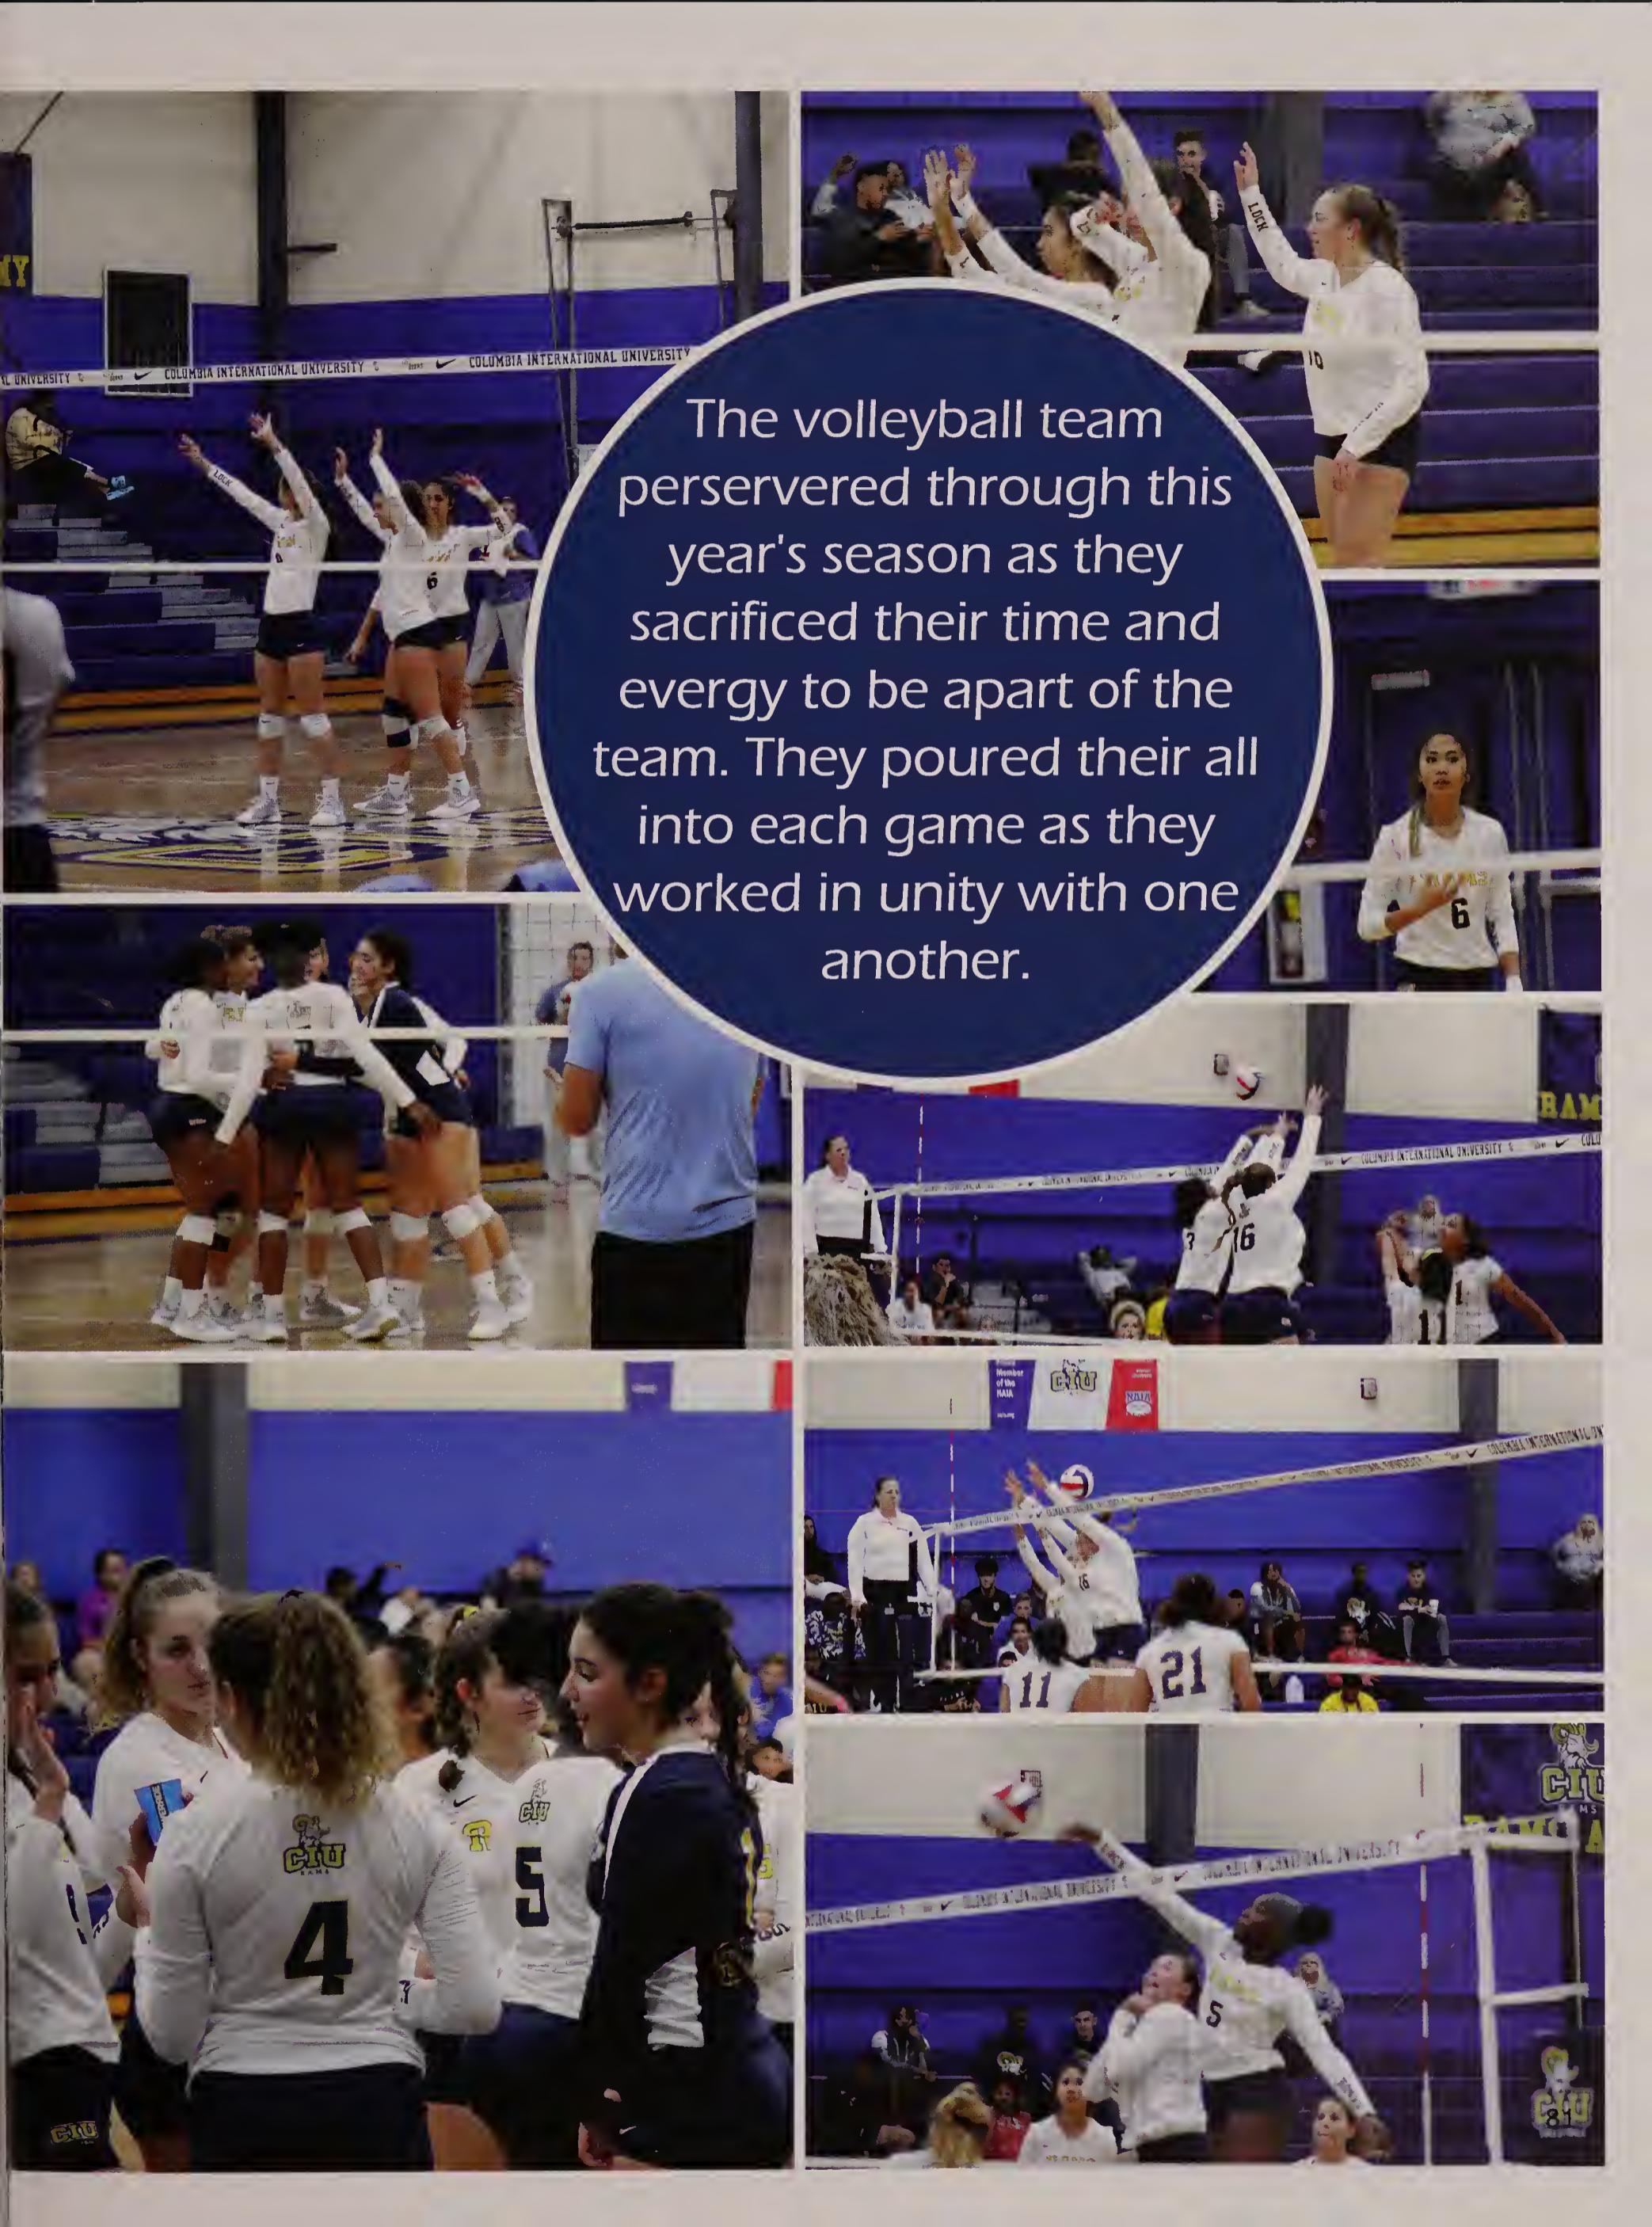

The women's soccer team put in hours of their time and energy into this year's season. Their diligence and endurance was evident in every game they played.

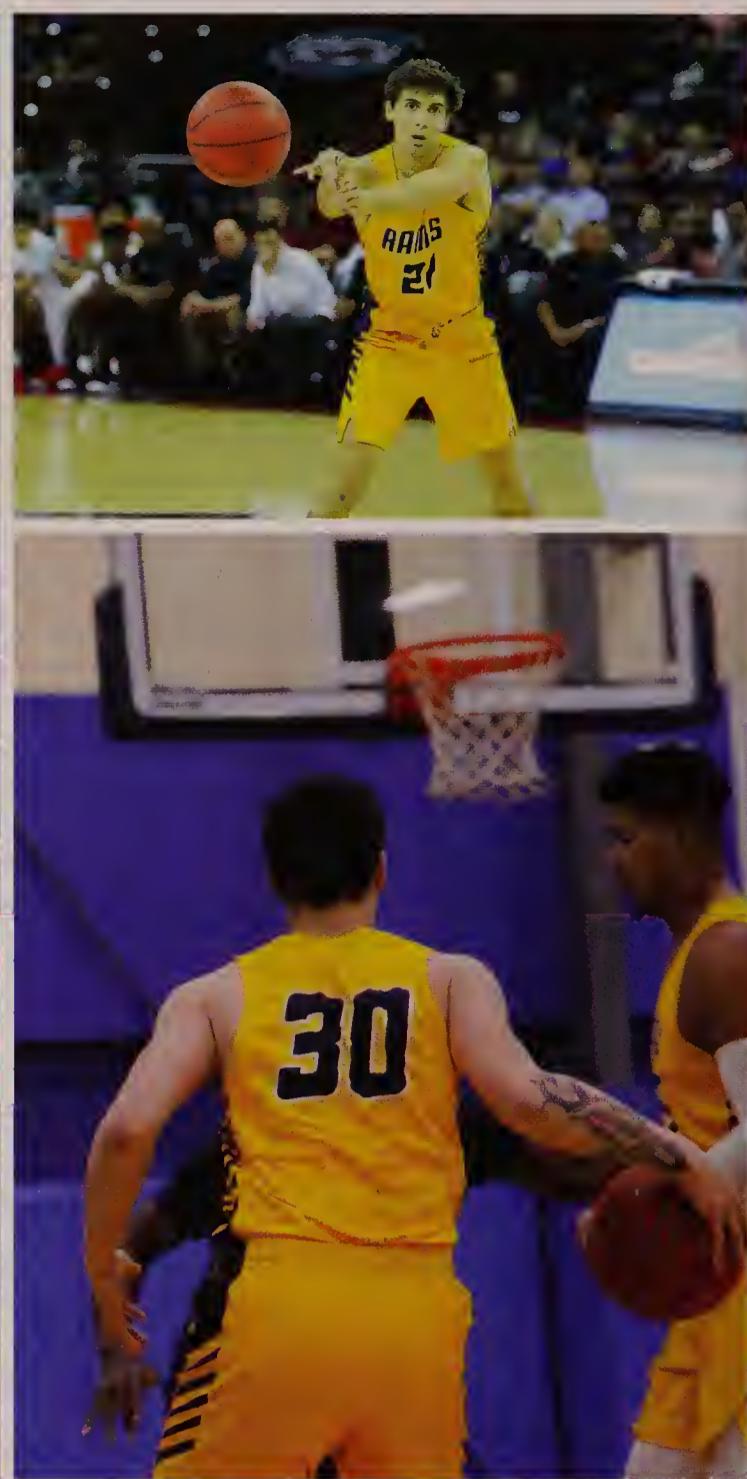

Volleyball

The volleyball team persevered through this year's season as they sacrificed their time and energy to be apart of the team. They poured their all into each game as they worked in unity with one another.

Men's Basketball

"We're working hard every day trying to be the best team in the conference. We're taking it day by day to get better, to win a championship, represent CIU, and glorify God."

-Corey Benton

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

This year the girls basketball team crushed it on and off the court. They were committed to training hard for their games and growing as a team. They were also very intentional about making sure that their character was God honoring.

JV Basketball

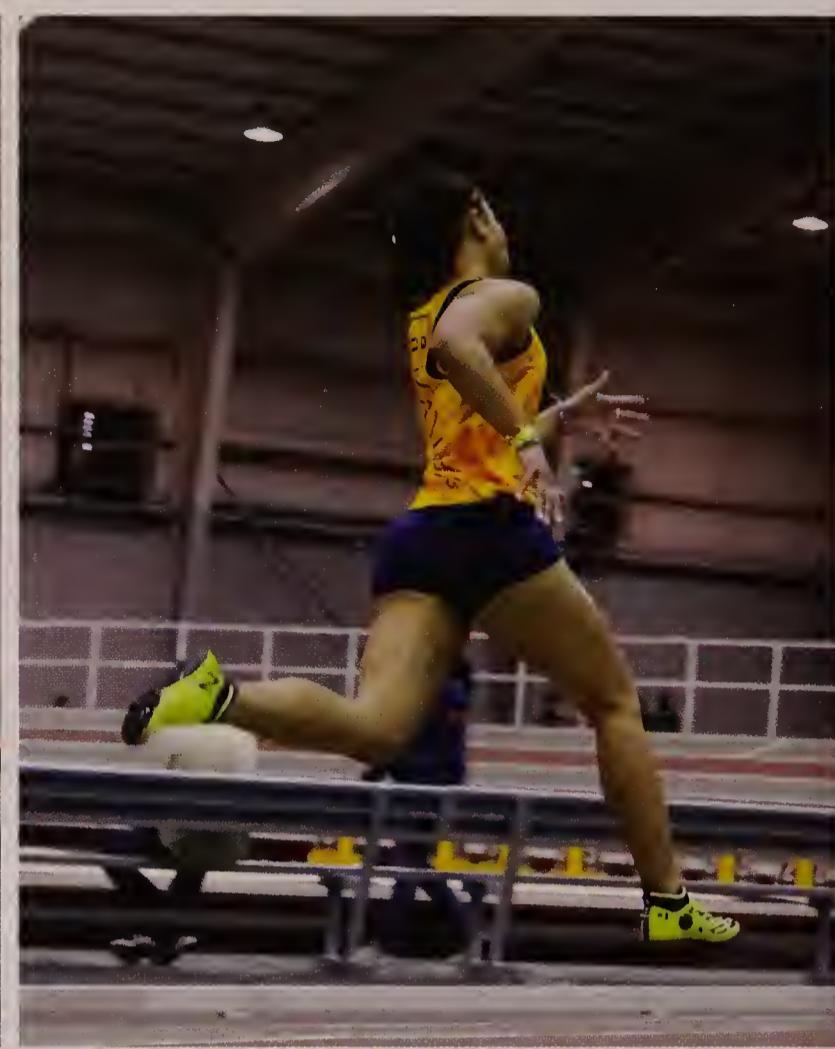

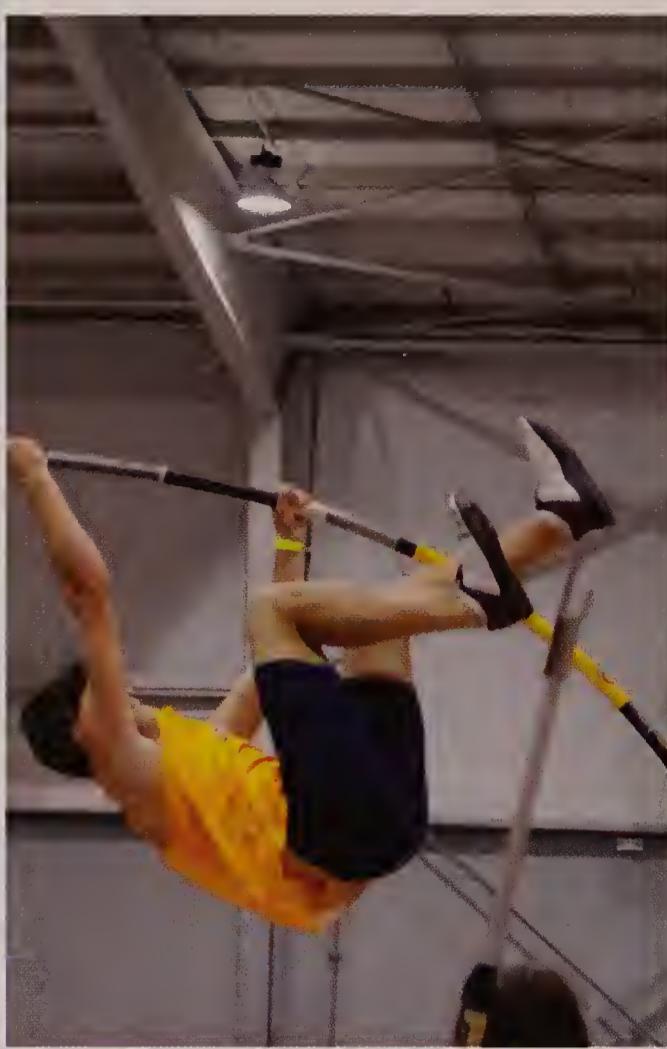

"I'm very grateful for this basketball season. It' was a ton of hard work, we basically eat, sleep, and breathe basketball. Despite it being so tough, I know it's helped grow and shape me into a better person."

-Ian Moore

Field & track + xc

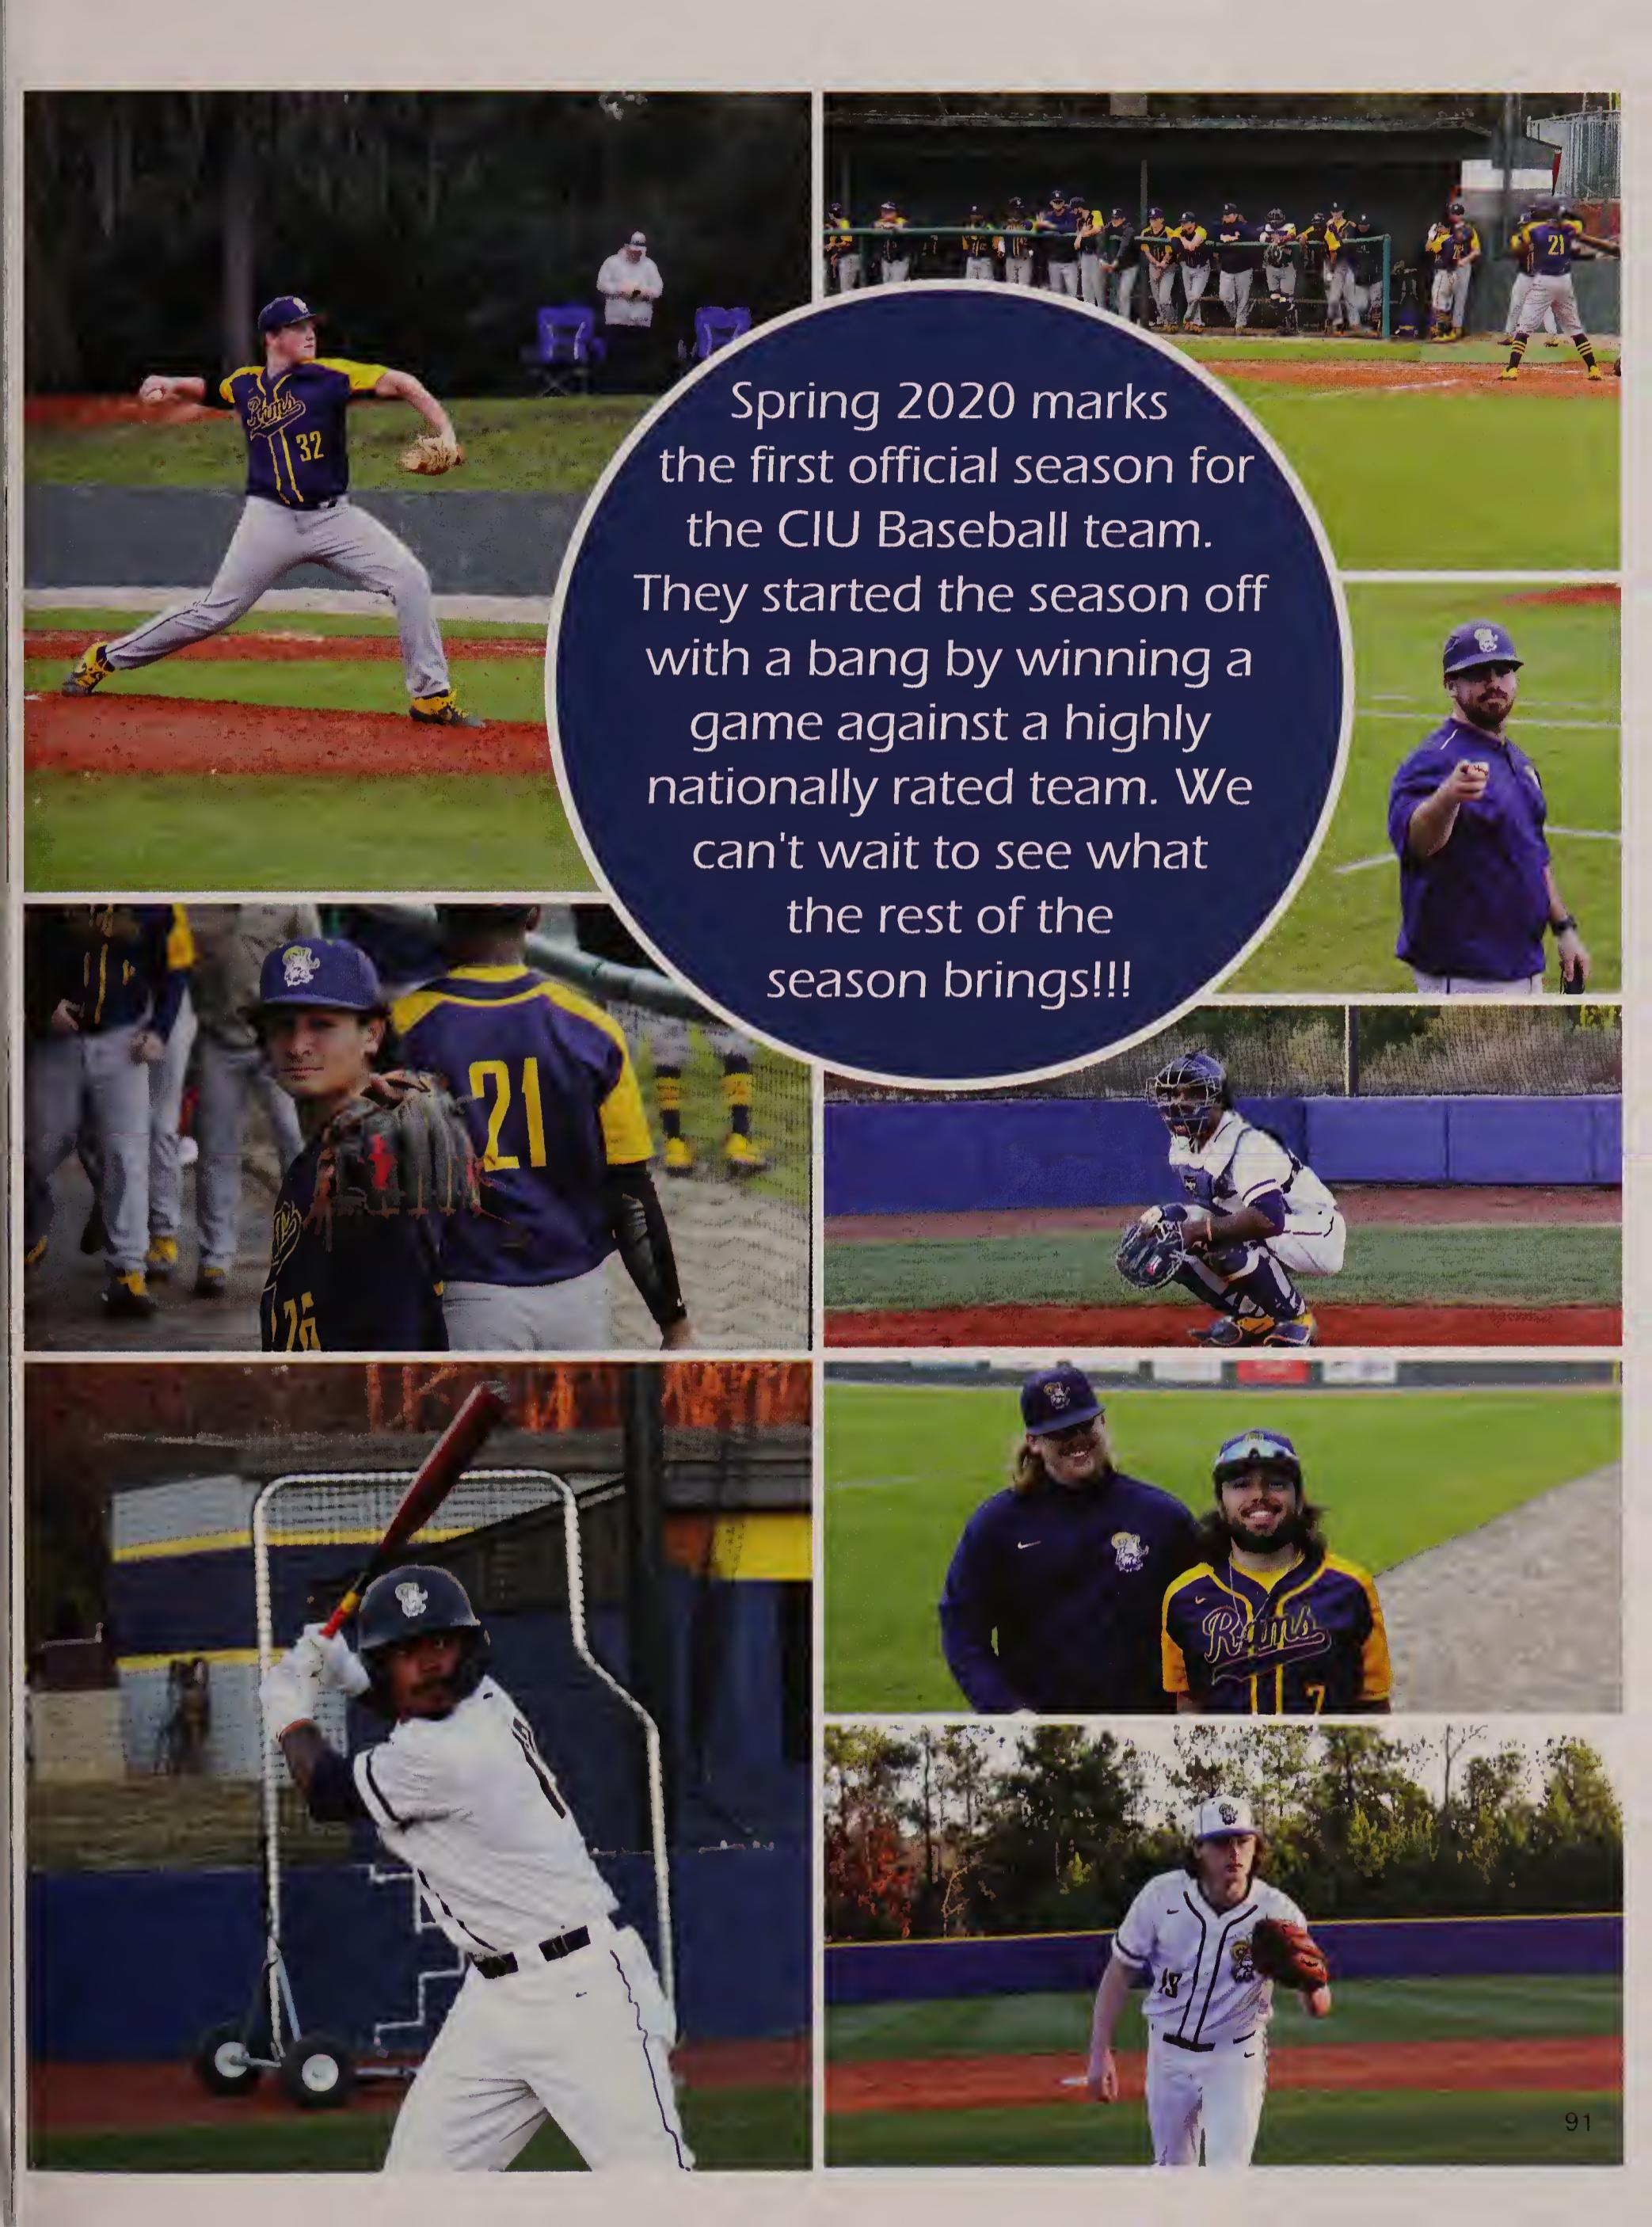

Both the Cross Country and Track and Field athletes excelled to new heights this year. Both teams grew in size and witnessed the breaking of several school record. Congratulation and thank you for representing CIU well!!

GO BOSSES GO

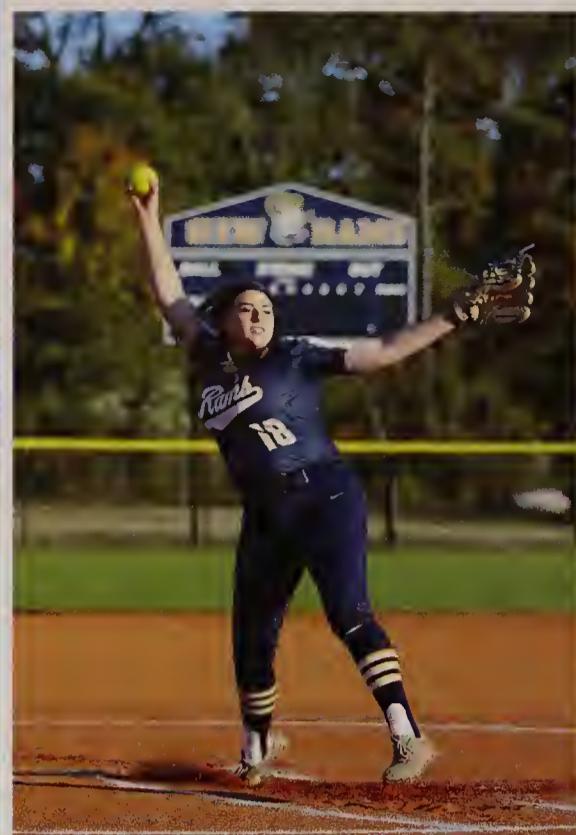

Spring 2020 marks the first official season for the CIU Baseball team. They started the season off with a bang by winning a game against a highly nationally rated team. We can't wait to see what the rest of the season brings!!!

SOFTBALL

Going into their second season Softball was committed to showing excellence on and off the field. They started their 2020 season with two wins against Trinity Baptist. Thank you girls for your endless commitment to softball!!

Wenatchee Golf

"We had a good fall season making it to Nationals & had some strong results in various tournaments. As a team we know that we have a lot more untapped potential & are looking forward to next season."

-Darren Scott

Wow! What a year it has been. My heart is overcome with thanksgiving for all of you who have served in SGA this year!

I know for many of us, the year has been filled with deep lows, incredible highs, and moments that we hope never to forget. I have been incredibly blessed to see that, though it's been tough at times, the mindset to serve CIU has remained. From the start, you have set out to do everything with excellence to the glory of the Lord. You've sought to use events well to build bridges with those you haven't connected with before, pray for those who are hurting, and amid confusion, run to a Father who can bring us peace.

In the midst of the business of the year, I've been beyond thankful for friends who I could pray with to bring revival to CIU, renewal for its students, and to serve in a manner that demonstrates the love of a God who loves us infinitely and beyond what we can imagine.

At the close of this wild year, I'm excited to see the new beginnings of clubs, organizations, but also the hearts of students. Please keep striving for excellence, being persistent in prayer, and seeking the Lord!

Thank you for allowing myself and the Exec Team to serve you, it's been an absolute honor! Thank you, and as always, RAM EM RAMS Y'ALL!

In Him,

Andrew McNeill

A Note From The Editors

As this year comes to a close our prayer is that as a campus, we set our eyes on Christ no matter how this past year went. For some of us this was a year of stress, business, depression, spiritual oppression and disappointment. For others this was a year full of victories, joy, liberation, spiritual growth and unity. For most of us this year was a bit of both. No matter what your year looked like spend some time reflecting on everything God did for you during the easy times and the hard times. Be thankful for whatever your year looked like.

As we move into the summer keep the memories of this year but set your eyes on Christ and eternity. Make this summer count. Let God use you! Surrender your preferences and step out in faith. Be bold in your faith!! Be salt and light to the world around you. Don't glide through the summer watching Netflix and sleeping the days away rather use your moments to impact the Kingdom. We will never do this perfectly so don't get discouraged when life gets hard or you need to refocus on God but remember that every minute is a new start. Go and live a life centered on Christ. Love the people God puts in your life and seek to love them as Christ loves them.

-Clara Lebo & Ellie Krueger (Editors)

"Fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider Him who has endured such hostility by sinners against Himself, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart."

Hebrews 12:2-3
